MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The Oklahoma State media relations office welcomes you to another season of Cowboy wrestling. The media relations staff is here to assist members of the media in their coverage of Oklahoma State athletics. Please take a moment to become familiar with the following media policies.

CREDENTIALS

Members of the media should contact Taylor Miller in the Oklahoma State media relations office to request credentials to OSU wrestling duals (taylor.miller11@okstate.edu or 405-744-7714). Credentials can be picked up at the Southwest pass gate to Gallagher-Iba Arena on match days.

INTERVIEWS

Media interview requests for Oklahoma State head coach John Smith along with assistant coaches and wrestlers should be directed to Taylor Miller in the OSU media relations office. Coaches and wrestlers are typically available for interview before practice starts (usually around 3 p.m. central), but arrangements can be made to accommodate most schedules.

MEDIA PARKING

Members of the media attending matches at Gallagher-Iba Arena should park in the lot just south of the arena and Boone Pickens Stadium. The entrance to the lot is located off Knoblock Street. No parking pass is necessary for entry into the lot.

VISITING RADIO, PHONE LINES

Phone lines will be provided to the primary radio broadcast crews for both the Cowboys and the visiting team. Additional lines are available to the media on a first-come, first-served basis in the Gallagher-Iba Arena media room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers may shoot from the east and west sides of the mat, but are prohibited from shooting in front of either team's bench on the north and south sides of the mat.

COWBOYS ON THE AIR

Rex Holt and Roger Moore are in their seventh year together as the radio broadcast team of Oklahoma State Cowboy Wrestling. OSU wrestling can be heard on its primary home of 93.7 KSPI-FM radio in Stillwater. Occasional events are aired on either 105.5 KGFY-FM radio or 780 AM radio Stillwater should programming conflicts arise. Any time the Cowboys are on the air, the live broadcast can also be accessed live on the official web site of OSU athletics, www.okstate.com.

NCAA CHAMP PERRY, FIVE ALL-AMERICANS HEADLINE COWBOY ROSTER

Dieringer, Caldwell, Morrison, Rosholt return to provide added firepower.

The Oklahoma State wrestling team is preparing for the 2013-14 season as it returns defending national champion Chris Perry at 174 pounds as well as four other All-Americans in Jon Morrison (133), Alex Dieringer (157), Tyler Caldwell (165) and Blake Rosholt (197), not to mention that five of the Pokes in the lineup are Big 12 champions.

"This is a season where we have pretty good balance for our team," coach John Smith said. "We need a little bit more fire power. We're looking for those pinners. We lost a little bit of bonus potential when Jordan Oliver and Alan Gelogaev graduated, and we need to replace it. That's the one thing that we need to develop."

While the Cowboys will lose dominating talent in two-time national champion Oliver and two-time All-American Gelogaev, the Cowboys have found nine of their wrestlers ranked in the top 20 in their respective weight classes with five of those being in the top five, according to Amateur Wrestling News' preseason rankings.

Leading the pack for the Pokes is national champion Chris Perry ranked in the No. 1 spot at 174 pounds. Alex Dieringer and Tyler Caldwell are each ranked as the No. 2 guys in their classes. Jon Morrison and Blake Rosholt are slotted as the fourth-ranked wrestlers at 133 pounds and 197 pounds. Austin Marsden (HWT) and Josh Kindig (149) take the No. 9 and 10 spots, respectively, and rounding out the top 20 are Julian Feikert (141) at No. 17 and Eddie Klimara (125) at No. 19.

Klimara will likely take the starting spot at 125 pounds after a 2012-13 season that saw him pulled from his redshirt in the middle of the season. The Joliet, Ill., native was able to build up some consistent success to close the year, landing him his first Big 12 championship and a 3-2 record at NCAAs.

"He showed a lot of improvement throughout the year," Smith said. "At Big 12s and NCAAs is really when he wrestled his best. His experience from last year is really going to put him in a position to be able to immediately challenge some opponents."

Representing OSU at 133 pounds, Morrison is coming off his best year as a Cowboy, finishing fifth in the nation and earning his first Big 12 individual title after moving up a weight class. The senior looks to make an impact nationally at 133 pounds and Smith thinks he is capable.

"He looked good at the weight class," Smith said. "His season last year was very good, pretty consistent and very balanced. If he grows from what he accomplished last year, I know that he can compete with anyone at this weight. That means a possible championship for him, and I know that's what he's thinking."

The 141-pound spot in the lineup is open for competition for the Pokes. Feikert, a junior who was in the starting lineup for most of the year, showed improvement throughout the season but lacked consistency. He will compete with redshirt freshman Case Garrison for the starting spot.

"This is a weight class that we hope to build more strength in throughout the year," Smith said. "It wasn't consistent enough last year. With the experience that Feikert has and a good, young freshman in Garrison, this is definitely a weight class that I hope will strengthen our lineup."

At 149 pounds, the Cowboys will have to replace two-time NCAA champion Oliver. Kindig, a junior who took a redshirt year during the 2012-13 season, is in the best position to win the spot. Backing him are two solid competitors in Matt White and Michael Martin.

"With the absence of Oliver at 149, we're looking at Kindig, White and Martin," Smith said. "They're all solid kids who have all been in the starting lineup at some point for us. I'm excited to see how this weight develops. We have three good guys there, and Kindig has had the most success. I'm just looking for him to be consistent and stay balanced."

157-pounder Dieringer quickly made a name for himself after dominating in his first year of varsity competition, and the same is expected from the returning All-American. The sophomore kept a steady training process throughout the summer, earning a spot on the Junior World Team for the second year in a row and representing the United States at the Junior World Championships in Bulgaria—experience that is sure to help in 2013-14.

"The key for Alex here as he tries to achieve top honors in this weight will be how he controls his weight and putting in a little extra effort in his spare time," Smith said. "He had a great season last year, making a real difference for us in our attempt to win a championship. He's going to be playing a little bit different role for us this year. We're going to have to count on him a little more, and he's the kid you can count on."

Three-time All-American Caldwell returns for the Pokes at 165 pounds. Caldwell, who is coming off a 30-win season and a third-place finish at NCAAs is in a good position to earn his first national title as he enters the season ranked second.

"For him, it's all about a championship," Smith said. "He's a senior and has placed high in the championships, and I know his goal is to be the best in the end, so we'll really focus on that process this year."

For the second consecutive year, Perry enters the season as the No. 1 wrestler in the nation at 174 pounds. He is coming off of an exciting 2012-13 season, where he captured his third Big 12 title, first individual national championship and only suffered two losses. Perry looks to defend his title with a tough schedule ahead of him.

"Things change after you win," Smith said. "If you remain focused, a lot of times it gets a lot better. I like that Chris did a lot of wrestling this summer. He competed overseas against some of the world's best and fared really well. That experience, along with winning a national championship last year, can really be used as great potential for leadership in helping develop some of our younger guys."

The only weight class where OSU is not represented in the preseason rankings is 184 pounds, a weight that has three real contenders and no clear starter.

"It's definitely a weight class that is young for us, where we have Jordan Rogers, Kyle Crutchmer and Nolan Boyd," Smith said. "This is a place where we have a chance to use several people and see where it goes. They all competed this summer and had a pretty good summer of competition. None of them are quite ready yet, but I think just getting some experience can turn this weight into a really competitive weight."

Blake Rosholt will once again take the 197-pound spot after an eighth-place finish at NCAAs. The Ponca City, Okla., native sat out part of the season due to injury, but battled throughout the year and showed a sense of relentlessness. Smith believes the recent development of Rosholt's body gives him a better advantage this season and can lead to big things for the senior.

"Physically, he has matured so much in the last two years," Smith said. "His body started developing, and you can see that his strength and the look of his body have changed. The power in his legs and footwork is just what he needed. I think him stepping in and becoming an All-American last year was big for our team and definitely big for him leading into his senior year. It's just a matter of building his confidence, and he can do some great things at this weight."

Finally, Marsden will have some big shoes to fill as he replaces Gelogaev at heavyweight, and Smith said he predicts another outstanding heavyweight wrestler for the Cowboys. The redshirt sophomore was pulled from his redshirt late in the 2011-12 season due to a season-ending injury to Gelogaev. He will finally have the chance to get a full season under his belt and will be key in the squad's quest for postseason glory.

"It's been a long wait for him. He didn't get a whole season his freshman year, and this year he gets a whole season," Smith said. "I really think he's ready to compete with some of the better heavyweights in the nation right out of the gate. He's a sophomore with a lot of exposure. He made the World Team the last two years. I think as he becomes more disciplined on and off the mat, we will see another great heavyweight for Oklahoma State."

With the NCAA Championships hosted in Oklahoma City this March, the Cowboys look to earn their 35th national championship in front of a home crowd. The last two times the championships were hosted in OKC, the Cowboys were crowned NCAA Champions.

"We need to be aggressive because this is a year that is very competitive as far as teams who are real contenders for an NCAA championship," Smith said. "It's going to be an exciting year. There are a lot of good teams, and we're definitely one of them. We may not be the favorite, but we were in that same situation last year and we closed the gap. I think that if we stay focused, we will inch ourselves closer and closer toward that goal of a team championship."

RECORDS AS A WRESTLER

International Record: 100-5
Domestic Freestyle Record: 77-3
Collegiate Record: 154-7-2
High School Record: 105-5

John Smith is a name synonymous with wrestling success.

The Oklahoma State head coach won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, and he owns five national championships as head coach of the Cowboys.

Smith accepted the head coaching position at Oklahoma State in 1992 and the numbers and accomplishments since that time speak for themselves. He has led his alma mater to five NCAA team titles in 1995, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, and he has coached 26 NCAA individual champions and five Olympians. Under his watch, the Cowboys have brought 13 team conference tournament championships. two Big 12 regular season titles and 82 individual conference titles back to Stillwater. He has seen 102 of his student-athletes earn All-America recognition, an average of 4.6 All-America honorees per year.

He was recognized as the National Wrestling Coaches Association coach of the year in 1994 and 2003 and is a 12-time selection as his conference's coach of the year (1994 and 1996 in the Big Eight and 1997, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011 and 2013 in the Big 12).

Most recently, Smith led his squad to its second Big 12 regular season title with a 6-0 conference dual record, making the Cowboys the only team to earn the title since its inception in 2012. The next day, eight Cowboys were crowned Big 12 champions en route to scoring a record-breaking 118.5 points to capture the conference tournament title.

Individual success continued for the Cowboys in the 2013 postseason as they took their entire starting lineup to DesMoines, Iowa, for the NCAA Championships. The squad produced seven All-Americans, making it the most for the program since 2005.

The Pokes added two national champions to the history books with senior Jordan Oliver picking up his second national title—this time at 149 pounds—and junior Chris Perry earning the crown at 174 pounds.

Smith's team finished the 2013 season as the No. 2 in the nation, falling just four points shy of the top team, Penn State in a thrilling NCAA tournament.

The 2013 squad finished the season 20-1, with its lone loss coming to Minnesota in the National Duals finals. The team spent two weeks in the top spot of the NWCA Poll.

A native of Del City, Okla., Smith owns a 348-48-6 career dual match record as a head coach (.869 winning pct.).

Smith led OSU to four consecutive NCAA team championships from 2003 through 2006.

The 2003 squad compiled a perfect 17-0 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title, crowned six individual Big 12 champions and featured a pair of NCAA individual champions in Johnny Thompson and Jake Rosholt.

2003 - Coached OSU to its 31st NCAA title. Led Johnny Thompson and Jake Rosholt to individual national championships. Smith also coached the Cowboys to the NWCA National Duals Team title and the Reno Tournament title. He was inducted into the FILA Hall of Fame and was honored as the Big 12 coach of the year.

2004 - Coached the Cowboys to their second straight national title. Led Chris Pendleton to his first national championship. Johnny Thompson and Tyrone Lewis earned All-American distinction all four years under Smith. Smith helped train former wrestlers Eric Guerrero, Jamill Kelly and Daniel Cormier to the United States Olympic team. The United States Olympic Committee honored Smith at the Night of Champions with the Titan Award. Big 12 coach of the year.

2005 - Led OSU to 21-0 record and third consecutive national title. Set school records by coaching five individual champions, scoring 153 team points at NCAAs and winning the national team title by a whopping 70 point margin. Big 12 coach of the year.

The 2004 squad sported a 17-2 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title, crowned four individual Big 12 champions and was led by NCAA individual champion Chris Pendleton.

Under Smith's watch, Oklahoma State compiled a 21-0 dual meet record in 2005 and capped the season with one of the most dominant showings in the history of the NCAA Championships when an NCAA-record five separate Cowboys were crowned as NCAA champions. Zack Esposito won at 149 with Johny Hendricks taking the 165 championship, Pendleton repeating as an NCAA champion at 174, Jake Rosholt claiming the title at 197 and Steve Mocco taking the heavyweight championship. OSU wrestlers compiled a 38-9 record at the NCAA Championships that year and the Cowboys set school records for points, margin of victory and national champions. Oklahoma State scored 153 team points to top second-place Michigan by 70 points.

Smith and the Cowboys were 16-2 in dual meets en route to claiming their fourth consecutive NCAA team title in 2006, led by Hendricks and Rosholt, who both claimed their second consecutive NCAA individual championships.

The first of Smith's five NCAA team championships was won in 1994, when the Cowboys compiled a 13-1 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team championship, crowned four individual Big 12 champions and three NCAA individual champions in Alan Fried, Mark Branch and Smith's younger brother and the first-ever four-time NCAA champion, Pat Smith.

For all of the championships and success he continues to enjoy as a coach, it is his career as a wrestler that is the stuff of legend. Smith truly was the best wrestler in the world.

In brief, Smith compiled a 105-5 record as a high school wrestler at Del City HS in Del City, Okla., before moving on to Oklahoma State, where he put together a 154-7-2 collegiate record that included a pair of NCAA individual championships in 1987 and 1988. He was a three-time All-America selection at OSU in 1985, 1987 and 1988. On the international stage, Smith rolled to a 100-5 career record that included six world championships (1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992), two Olympic gold medals (1988 and 1992), two Pan American Games gold medals (1987 and 1991) and two Goodwill Games gold medals (1986 and 1990).

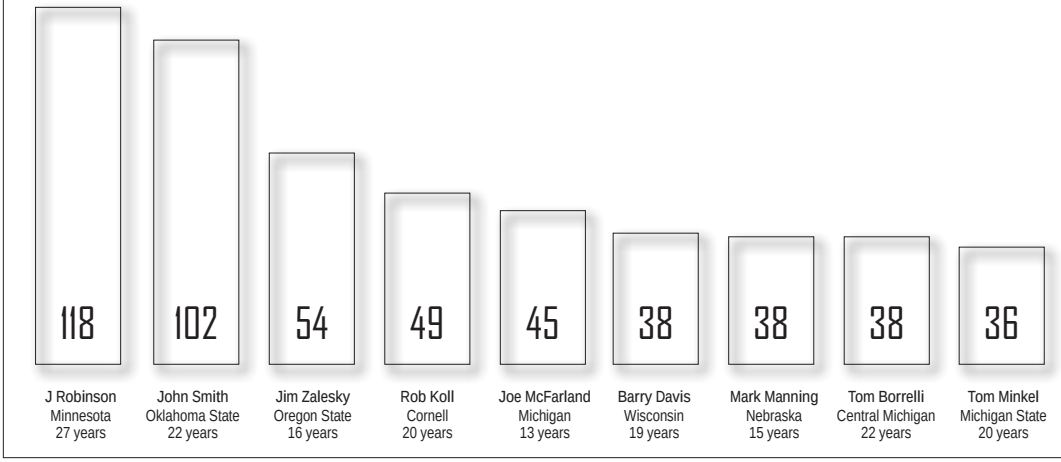
To this day, Smith holds Oklahoma State school records for career victories (154), single-season victories (47 in 1988), career falls (38) and single-season falls (19 in 1988). A three-time Big Eight Conference individual champion in 1985, 1987 and 1988, Smith wrestled primarily at 134 during his collegiate career, where he strung together a 69-3 overall record. He also competed at 126, compiling a 19-2 overall mark. He won his one career match at 142.

After Smith's junior year at Oklahoma State, he won the first of his six world championships in Clermont-Ferrand France. Smith remains the only collegiate wrestler to win a world championship while he was still in school. Following his graduation in 1988, Smith qualified for the U.S. Olympic freestyle team and came away from the Seoul Olympics with the first of his two Olympic gold medals and the second of his six consecutive world titles.

Three more world championships ensued in 1989, 1990 and 1991 before Smith claimed the second of his Olympic gold medals at the 1992 Barcelona games to cement his legacy as one of the greatest wrestlers of all time.

His list of awards and honors received certainly befits someone who earned the distinction of being the best wrestler on the planet. Smith was honored as the first wrestler ever to be voted as the

All-Americans Coached (Active Leaders)



James E. Sullivan Award winner as America's outstanding amateur athlete when he won the award in 1990. He was the first American ever to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA) when he received the honor in 1990. In 1992, he was presented with the Amateur Athletic Foundation's World Trophy. A 2003 inductee into the FILA International Wrestling Hall of Fame, a distinguished member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and a 1997 inductee into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame, Smith was recognized as one of the 100 Greatest Olympians of All Time at the 1996 Atlanta Games.

Smith was the 1991 selection as FILA's Outstanding Wrestler of the Year after earning Man of the Year honors from Amateur Wrestling News in 1988, Athlete of the Year recognition from USA Wrestling in 1989 and Sportsman of the Year honors from the U.S. Olympic Committee in 1990.

In 2004, Smith was presented with the Titan Award by the U.S. Olympic Committee, and the next year, he joined his brother Pat as one of 15 wrestlers named to the NCAA's 75th Anniversary Team.

The Smith family legacy is strong at Oklahoma State, as John's older brother Lee Roy was a three-time All-America in 1977, 1979 and 1980 and claimed the 1980 national championship. John was a three-time All-America in 1985, 1987 and 1988 with a pair of national titles in 1987 and 1988 and younger brother Pat was a four-time All-America with four national championships in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994.

Smith has also successfully established a wrestling club that allows wrestlers from across the country to prepare and train for international competition. The Gator Wrestling Club sent three former Oklahoma State wrestlers to compete in the 2004 Olympic Games. Jamill Kelly won the silver medal at the 2004 Athens Olympics, with Daniel Cormier finishing fourth and Eric Guerrero also representing the USA in Athens.

In 1995, Smith married the former Toni Donaldson. The couple has three sons – Joseph, Samuel and Levi and two daughters – Isabell and Cecilia.

2006 - Won his fourth straight national title and became the school's all-time winningest coach passing his mentor, Tommy Chesbro. Big 12 coach of the year.

2008 - Coached Coleman Scott to the NCAA individual title at 133 pounds and coached Jared Rosholt to the Big 12 heavyweight title. Scott (1st), Nathan Morgan (4th at 141 pounds), Jack Jensen (7th at 184 pounds) and Rosholt (4th at 285 pounds) earned All-America honors at the NCAA Championships.

2010 – Earned his eighth Big 12 coach of the year honor in leading the underdog Cowboys to a conference title. Coached four All-Americans in Jordan Oliver, Clayton Foster, Alan Gelogaev and Jared Rosholt to go with a trio of Big 12 champions in Oliver, Jamal Parks and Foster.

2011 - Big 12 Coach of the Year. Led the Cowboys to the Big 12 title despite fielding the youngest lineup in the league. Jordan Oliver won the NCAA title at 133 pounds and Clayton Foster (2nd at 197) and Jamal Parks (5th at 149 pounds) earned All-America status. Coached Team USA to third-place finish at the World Wrestling Championships in Istanbul, Turkey.

2012 - Jordan Oliver finished second at 133, Chris Perry finished third at 174 and Cayle Byers finished third at 197 to earn All-America honors at the NCAA Championships. Led the Cowboys to the inaugural Big 12 regular season team title with a 6-0 dual mark. Coached the U.S. Senior Freestyle team at the Olympics and mentored former Cowboy Coleman Scott to the bronze medal at 60 kg. Americans Jordan Burroughs and Jake Varner both won Olympic gold medals with Smith on the coaching staff.

2013 - Produced two NCAA champs in Jordan Oliver at 149 pounds and Chris Perry at 174 pounds. Also coached five other All-Americans. His squad maintained an impressive 20-1 dual record and finished the season as Big 12 regular season champs, Big 12 tournament champs and the nation's No. 2 team.

2009 Head Coach, USA Junior Freestyle World Team

Three-time NCAA individual champion and 2004 Olympian Eric Guerrero is in his ninth year on the Oklahoma State wrestling staff. He was promoted to the role of associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 season. During his time on staff, he has been a key figure in four of the Cowboys' NCAA team championships and eight of OSU's Big 12 tournament team championships.

Additionally, he was selected to serve as head coach for the USA at the 2009 FILA Junior Freestyle World Championships in Ankara, Turkey and led that squad to its most successful showing in 11 years.

A talented recruiter, Guerrero was instrumental in attracting the nation's top recruiting class to Oklahoma State in 2009.

Guerrero initially joined John Smith's staff as a strength and conditioning coach in 2000-01. His work in the weight room and in conditioning helped prepare Oklahoma State for NCAA team championships in 2003 and 2004. He was promoted into the position of full-time assistant coach following the 2004 season, and the success continued as the Cowboys won their third and fourth consecutive NCAA team titles with Guerrero on board in 2005 and 2006, respectively.

The San Jose, Calif., native coached 2013 NCAA individual champion Chris Perry and Jordan Oliver, 2011 NCAA individual champion Oliver, 2008 NCAA individual champion Coleman Scott, 2006 NCAA individual champions Johny Hendricks and Jake Rosholt, 2005 NCAA individual champions Zack Esposito, Hendricks, Chris Pendleton, Rosholt and Steve Mocco and assisted in the development of 2003 NCAA individual champs Johnny Thompson and Rosholt and 2004 NCAA individual champion Pendleton.

A decorated wrestler himself, Guerrero won NCAA individual championships in 1997, 1998 and 1999 at the age of 19, 20 and 21, respectively, and he represented the United States at the 2004 Athens Olympics. Guerrero was a four-time All-American in college, a four-time U.S. Open national champion and was named Outstanding Wrestler at the 2002 U.S. Open. Additionally, Guerrero was a two-time USA FILA junior world freestyle champion and won the 1995 USA junior freestyle championship.

As an international competitor, Guerrero made his first USA world team while he was still just a junior in college. He earned his first berth in the World Championships following his college career in 1999. Guerrero won four U.S. Open titles from 2001 to 2004, won a World Cup Championship in 2003, was a member of the U.S. World Team five consecutive years and helped the Gator Wrestling Club win three national team titles.

Guerrero compiled a 117-13 overall record during his time as a wrestler at Oklahoma State from 1996-99, highlighted by a perfect 31-0 record his senior year in which he recorded a fall, 12 technical falls and seven major decisions. He is one of only 12 four-time All-Americans in the decorated history of Oklahoma State wrestling. Additionally, he was recognized as a two-time Academic All-America selection.

With Guerrero serving as one of the team leaders, the Cowboys won 68 consecutive dual matches spanning from the last four duals of his freshman year through the end of his senior year. The Cowboys won three conference championships during Guerrero's time competing, claiming the 1996 Big 8 championship and the 1997 and 1998 Big 12 titles.

He dominated the field at the 1999 NCAA Championships, picking up bonus-point victories in his first three matches before claiming a 1-0 win over Fresno State's Stan Greene in the semifinals and a 3-1 win over Iowa State's Cody Sanderson in the title bout.

His route to the 1999 NCAA Championship was similar to his journey to the 1998 crown, as he claimed three straight bonus-point wins before a 2-1 victory over Iowa State's Dwight Hinson in the semis and a 5-4 triumph over Wisconsin's Eric Jetton for the crown.

Guerrero originally came to Stillwater after a stellar high school career at Independence HS in San Jose, Calif., that resulted in a cadet world title in 1993, first-team ASICS All-America recognition in 1994 and 1995, a junior national title in 1995 and California Male Athlete of the Year honors in 1995, among countless other accolades.

He married the former Kristen Blair in the summer of 2012.

After only two years as an assistant coach, Esposito has already built an impressive coaching resume.

The 2007 OSU graduate served as a club coach for the Cowboys for the 2010 and 2011 seasons, assisting with the Stillwater-based Gator Club.

In just the first two years of his coaching career, he has helped guide the Cowboys to back-to-back team Big 12 championships and eight individual Big 12 titles.

He has also coached 17 All-Americans and helped lead Chris Perry to his first NCAA title in 2013 at 174 pounds and Jordan Oliver to two national championships in 2011 and 2013 at 133 and 149 pounds, respectively.

Esposito was a standout wrestler for the Cowboys from 2002-2006, compiling a 120-12 overall record during his time in the Orange singlet.

He compiled a 35-1 overall record en route to the NCAA 149-pound title in 2005 and has the distinction of being a starter on four Oklahoma State NCAA championship-winning teams from 2003-06. The Cowboys also claimed team Big 12 championships all four years of his impressive career.

He played a vital role in each of his team's championships, as he finished second, first and third, respectively, in his three NCAA Championship appearances and second, first, first and first in Big 12 Championship appearances.

He has also built an impressive list of accomplishments at the senior level of competition, including three appearances at the ASICS U.S. National Championships, a top-five finish at the 2007 U.S. World Team Trials, and several top finishes at international tournaments. Additionally, he was a member of the 2008 World Cup Team that competed in Russia.

Esposito's name can be found throughout the Cowboy record book, as his 120 career victories ties him for 10th all-time at OSU and his 32 career major decisions stands sixth on the Cowboys' all-time list.

The Three Bridges, N.J., native is married to the former Brandy Baker. The couple has a daughter, Evelyn and a son, Rocco.

COLEMAN SCOTT

VOLUNTEER COACH | SECOND YEAR
OKLAHOMA STATE, 2008

2012 Olympic bronze medalist and 2008 NCAA champion Coleman Scott joined the Cowboy Wrestling coaching staff in 2012.

In his first season as a part of the staff, Scott saw seven All-Americans and two national champions produced under his direction as well as eight conference champions.

One of only 13 four-time All-Americans in Oklahoma State's storied history, Scott entered the 2012 freestyle season ranked No. 3 in the U.S. at 60 kg, but roared through the bracket at the U.S. Olympic Trials, then went on to win a thrilling wrestle-off outdoors in the middle of New York City's Times Square to earn his spot on the Olympic team.

Once at the Olympics, Scott won three of his four bouts - with one win coming by fall - to claim his bronze medal. His lone loss came to the wrestler who went on to win gold.

Scott married the former Jessica Brooks in 2010. The couple has a daughter, Leighton.

STRENGTH AND SUCCESS

The Big 12 Conference is home to wrestling powerhouses

The Big 12 enters its 18th year as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of second-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012 and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only major conference in the nation to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule.

The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 17 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 52 NCAA team titles and 537 individual national championships.

The trophy case added more hardware in 2012-13 as Texas won the NCAA Championship in women's volleyball and the Oklahoma State men's cross country team captured its third national title in the last four seasons. Oklahoma State won the Western crown in equestrian while Oklahoma became one of just five programs to capture multiple national championships in softball. The year ended with Kansas hoisting its first NCAA trophy in women's outdoor track and field. Additionally, the Big 12 picked up 20 individual national titles.

Several other sports also made strong national showings a year ago. Big 12 football sent a national-record 90 percent of its teams to bowl games. Women's basketball claimed the top position in conference RPI for the sixth consecutive season and was the only league to place 80 percent of its teams in postseason play and 70 percent in the NCAA Championship. Baylor won the Big 12's first men's basketball NIT title. Kansas indoor track & field, Oklahoma women's gymnastics and Oklahoma State wrestling finished as runner-up in their respective national championships. Additionally, Texas joined Oklahoma in the Softball College World Series while K-State and Oklahoma competed in baseball Super Regionals.

Individually, Baylor center Brittney Griner earned consensus women's basketball national player of the year for the second season. Oklahoma State's Marcus Smart was named National Freshman of the Year by two different outlets, while Jeff Withey of Kansas was selected the National Association of Basketball Coaches Defensive Player of the Year. Texas volleyball head coach Jerritt Elliott received American Volleyball Coaches Association Coach of the Year honors.

Oklahoma pitcher Keilani Ricketts repeated as the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, giving the Big 12 two of the three all-time multiple winners as former Texas player Cat Osterman earned the award three times. Ricketts also claimed the Honda Award for softball for the second consecutive season and the Honda Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate athlete by the Collegiate Women's Sports Awards. Kansas track & field head coach Stanley Redwine and assistant coach Wayne Pate each earned national accolades as the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) awarded the two with outdoor coach of the year honors.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 lays claim to five Heisman Trophy winners since 1996 and has had a finalist in 12 of its 17 seasons – the most of any league. Seventeen athletes have earned major individual awards in football in the past five campaigns. Overall, more than 1,400 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition in the past five years alone.

Through its first 17 years, the Big 12 has claimed a team national championship in 16 of the sports it sponsors. The Conference ranks second with seven appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and is second with 96 football consensus All-America selections in that time. League squads combined to lead the nation in women's basketball attendance 13 consecutive years and the Big 12 is the only conference to surpass the one-million mark in season attendance – doing so six times. In men's basketball, the league is the only conference in the nation where every coach has guided a team to the NCAA Tournament, including six coaches that have led teams to the Final Four. During the last nine years a total of 31 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including 16 consecutive seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Danielle Robinson (Oklahoma) and Sam Acho (Texas) were selected to receive Today's Top VIII Awards – one of the NCAA's top honors. It recognizes student-athletes who completed their athletic eligibility during 2010-11 for success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last two seasons, three student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 89 Award. That honor showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has had 537 Academic All-America recipients, averaging more than 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Nine times in the past eight years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport. The Big 12 had plenty of success overall in the classroom the last four years, as the Conference boasted 80 student-athletes earning Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition through the fall of 2012.

The Big 12 can take pride in other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships. Oklahoma State women's basketball was the inaugural recipient of the "Together We R" Team Award in 2012, recognizing programs that have strived to succeed in the face of adversity. Following a devastating tornado south of Oklahoma City just before the Big 12 Baseball Championship in 2013, several league baseball teams along with other student-athletes, coaches and former Conference players contributed help in a variety of ways. Plus, the Conference contributed $200,000 to the relief efforts.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 313 scholars have received near $2.2 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 17 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 37 million people. More than 4,200 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference conducts postseason championships for 20 of its 23 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football regular season championship earns the league's berth into the Bowl Championship Series.

In its first 17 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.8 billion to its member institutions. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

2012-2013 REVIEW

2013 Big 12 Champions

COWBOYS WIN BIG 12, TAKE SECOND AT NCAAS

Oliver and Perry earn individual national titles, five others receive All-America status. Eight Cowboys crowned Big 12 Champions.

The Oklahoma State wrestling team wrapped up a noteworthy 2012-13 season, producing two individual national champions and five other All-Americans along with a regular season conference title, a Big 12 tournament title and a 20-1 overall dual record.

Oliver capped off his final season in the orange singlet with his second national championship, this time at 149 pounds. Despite moving up two weight classes the Easton, Pa., native looked as dominant as ever. He was unstoppable in the regular season, picking up 15 bonus-point wins in 20 duals, and just as forceful in the postseason, winning his fourth Big 12 title and his third Outstanding Wrestler award, grabbing four pins and a technical fall along the way. Oliver also secured his fourth All-American honor after defeating No. 9 seed Jake Sueflohn of Nebraska in the NCAA quarterfinals, 11-3. In the NCAA 149-pound finals and Oliver's final collegiate match, Oliver confronted Boise State's Jason Chamberlain, whom he defeated, 3-2, thanks to a slick takedown in the final 10 seconds of the match to earn his second national title.

Oliver put together a perfect 37-0 season, improving to 126-6 overall and tying him for fifth with OSU great Johny Hendricks in all-time wins in the program. Of Oliver's 37 wins, 31 came with bonus points attached, giving him an 83.7 bonus-point win percentage. The senior recorded 17 pins in the 2012-13 season, which gave him the school record for most career pins with 54. The previous record was set by Olympic gold medalist Kenny Monday's 51 pins from 1981-1984. To top it off, Oliver ranks ninth in all-time win percentages with 95.45, just 0.05 percent behind the eighth-place spot.

"Jordan was a beast during his career with four top-four finishes at the NCAA tournament," coach John Smith said. "He's got two national titles and four conference titles. He has one of the highest winning percentages at Oklahoma State and that's how you judge the greats. He will definitely be missed, but I'm looking forward to his post-collegiate competition."

Chris Perry still has another year competing as a Cowboy and has set the bar high for himself as he completed an outstanding junior season.

Perry became the first Stillwater native to win a national title for the Pokes since 1961. Before snagging the title, Perry ran through his opponents with ease, suffering only two losses. He finished the season 36-2 overall accompanied by 21 bonus point wins—eight falls, seven technical falls and six major decisions. The junior went 19-2 in dual competition and 8-0 in conference competition.

He won his third-straight Big 12 title, clobbering Iowa State's Tanner Weatherman with an 8-0 major decision. One of his most notable wins came over No. 3 Logan Storley of Minnesota, whom he defeated, 7-6, in the finals of the Southern Scuffle to win the 174-pound title. He also topped five other top-ten opponents, with three of those wins coming at the NCAA tournament over No. 8 Nick Heflin, No. 4 Robert Kokesh and No. 2 Matt Brown.

Perry had a tournament full of close wins with three of his five championship bouts going into overtime. In the 174-pound national final, Perry and Brown of Penn State kept it very close as the two went into overtime after finishing regulation tied, 1-1. Perry picked up an escape in the tiebreaker and was able to hold off Brown to win it, 2-1.

"Chris builds onto the legacy of family, the legacy of OSU and the legacy of Oklahoma," Smith said. "It's good to see a kid from Oklahoma win a national title, and I think he will inspire many others."

2012-13 SEASON RECAP

In addition to OSU's two national champs, five other Cowboys received All-American honors—Alan Gelogaev, Tyler Caldwell, Alex Dieringer, Jon Morrison and Blake Rosholt.

Gelogaev also concluded his career as a Cowboy with his best showing at the NCAA tournament, finishing third. The Russian made an appearance in only two national tournaments due to season-ending injuries in 2011 and 2012, but those minor setbacks fueled Gelogaev to finish strong.

The senior went 29-4, including a win over one of the nation's top contenders, Dom Bradley of Missouri, who he edged, 4-3, at the NWCA National Duals. He notched 15 bonus wins in the form of 10 falls, four major decisions and one technical fall. Two of his pins came back-to-back at the NCAA Championships. His first fall was in 18 seconds over Benjamin Apland of Michigan, which is the fastest fall ever by a heavyweight at the tournament. The other fall came in just 34 seconds over Jeremy Johnson of Ohio in the second round. Gelogaev also earned his first Big 12 title by way of pin when he stuck No. 21 Matt Gibson of Iowa State in 58 seconds.

In his first year as a Poke, Tyler Caldwell, a transfer from the University of Oklahoma, completed his junior season with a team-high 17 wins over ranked opponents, including a 5-1 win over No. 3 Peter Yates to take third at the NCAA tourney. Caldwell won his first conference title after defeating No. 5 Bubby Graham in a thrilling 1-0 victory. The 165-pounder strung together a 35-5 overall record with 15 of those wins coming with bonus points attached.

One of the season's most exciting stories was that of freshman phenom, Alex Dieringer, who produced the best finish by a freshman at the 2013 national tournament, taking the third-place spot on the 157-pound podium. The redshirt freshman went 35-3 in his first year as a starter, picking up a Big 12 title along the way. Of his 35 wins, 25 wins had bonus points attached.

Junior Jon Morrison earned his first All-American honor when he finished fifth at nationals, fighting through one of the toughest brackets, facing six seeded wrestlers, four of which were ranked higher than he. Morrison posted huge wins over No. 5 Chris Dardanes, No. 6 Nathan McCormick and No. 9 Cody Brewer on his way to finishing 30-8 and picking up a Southern Scuffle title and a Big 12 title at 133 pounds.

At 197 pounds, Blake Rosholt was the final All-American for the Cowboys, earning eighth place and the eighth All-American honor for the Rosholt family. The junior secured a 17-10 overall record with more than half of his wins resulting in bonus points. He finished second at the conference tournament, falling to No. 7 Kyven Gadson, but he avenged that loss in the second round of the NCAA Championships, knocking Gadson into the wrestlebacks after a close and controversial 8-7 win.

Also making NCAA appearances and adding to OSU's success was senior Chris Chionuma, sophomore Julian Feikert and true freshman Eddie Klimara.

In addition to the individual glory that was achieved in the 2012-13 postseason, the Pokes had a dominant dual season as well.

OSU had without a doubt the toughest schedule in the nation, facing 12 ranked teams and beating 11 of them. The Pokes started at home with a 35-10 win over Pennsylvania, but saw one of their biggest tests early in the season as they traveled to Minneapolis to take on top-ranked Minnesota. The Cowboys knocked off the No. 1 Gophers with ease, 22-15.

OSU defeated two more top-25 teams the next weekend, defeating No. 20 Wyoming, 31-8, and No. 10 Oklahoma, 26-9. Their success continued with wins over Chattanooga and Cornell at the inaugural Grapple at the Garden event in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Just weeks later, the Cowboys took on their biggest rival, the Iowa Hawkeyes, in Stillwater, where they emerged with an 18-12 victory in front of more than 6,000 fans.

The Cowboys continued to slay the competition and made it all the way to the National Duals Finals with an unblemished record. Unfortunately, Minnesota handed the Cowboys their first loss in a dual that seemed to favor the Gophers in every way.

Oklahoma State finished its dual season 20-1 overall, 6-0 in conference and added another regular season Big 12 Championship to its trophy case.

HISTORY

COWBOY WRESTLING TRADITION

By any measure, Oklahoma State is the gold standard within the world of college wrestling.

On the national level, the Cowboys have won 34 NCAA team titles, crowned 136 NCAA individual champions and earned 435 All-America honors.

No other program even comes close to those astounding numbers.

It's a similar story on the conference level, with OSU winning 47 league titles as a team and Cowboy wrestlers combining to win 249 conference individual championships.

Furthermore, every four years, the O, S and U in Oklahoma State's name could easily be replaced by Olympic Stage University. Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times.

From the individual perspective, any list of greatest wrestlers in NCAA history must include Oklahoma State's Yojiro Uetake, who was a perfect 57-0 with three NCAA titles and Pat Smith, who was the first four-time NCAA champion in history.

That list doesn't even include the accomplishments of Pat's older brother, John Smith, who was a two-time NCAA champion for the Cowboys and went on to win a staggering six world-level gold medals from 1987-92 or his OSU teammate, Kenny Monday, who won four world-level medals, including gold in 1988 and 1989.

All told, 25 members of the Cowboy wrestling program are Distinguished Members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and an additional 14 combined to earn Outstanding Wrestler distinction at the NCAA Championships a total of 15 times (Uetake took home the honor twice in 1965 and 1966).

A contributing factor to Oklahoma State wrestlers performing as well as they have over the years is the elite level of coaching that has taken - and continues to - take place in the Cowboy wrestling room on a daily basis.

Ed Gallagher is credited with the title of Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling. He launched Oklahoma State into a dominant position within the sport by coaching the Cowboys to 11 NCAA titles from 1928-1940. His impact on the sport is still felt today.

He was followed by Art Griffith and his eight NCAA titles, then by Myron Roderick and his seven crowns. Tommy Chesbro and Joe Seay combined to win three NCAA titles before John Smith took over and rattled off five NCAA titles and counting.

Dating back to the inception of the NCAA Wrestling Championships in 1928, every Oklahoma State head coach has led the Cowboys to at least one NCAA title and Gallagher, Griffith, Roderick, Seay and John Smith have all served as coaches for Team USA at either the Olympics or the World Championships.

In 1917, Gallagher delivered the first dual match win in OSU wrestling history and in 2011, John Smith led the Cowboys to their 1,000th dual match triumph. In between those landmark wins, OSU won better than 89 percent of its duals all-time to further its stranglehold as the gold standard in college wrestling.

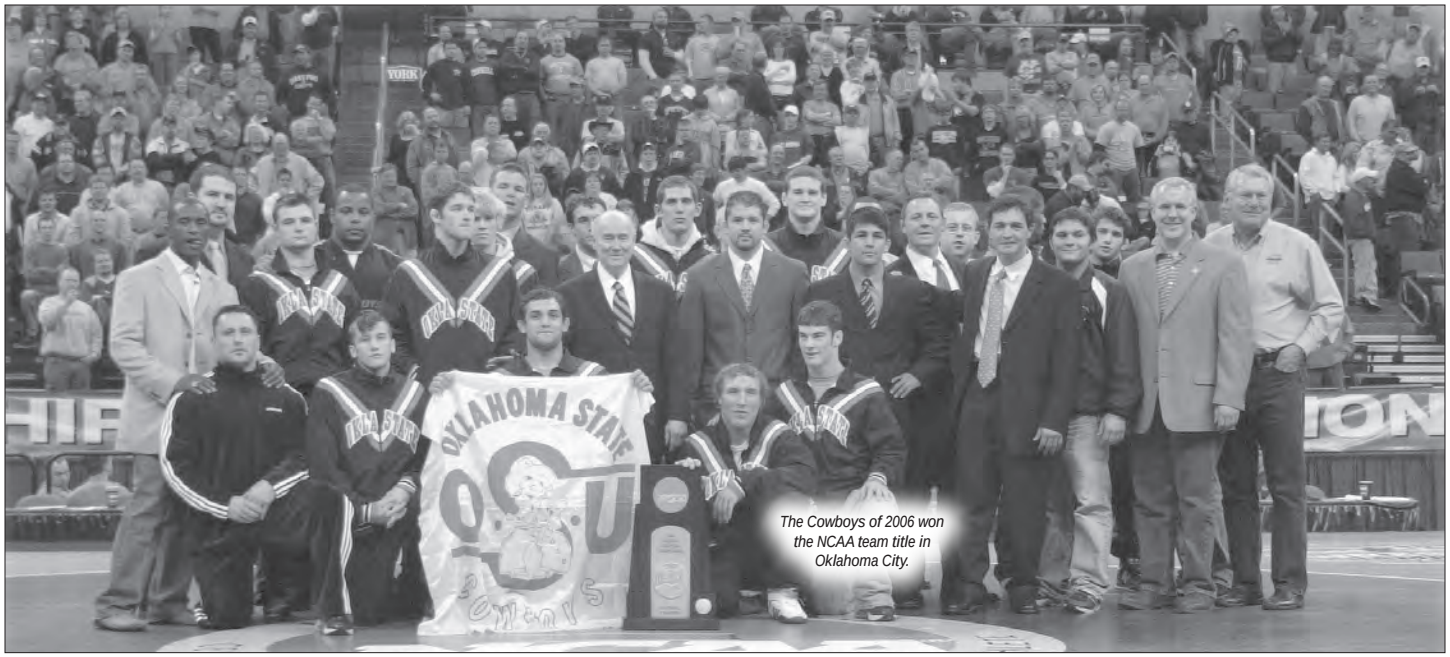
NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM STATS



The Cowboys of 2006 won the NCAA team title in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma State has finished first as a team 34 times at the NCAA Wrestling Championships, including a tie in 1933. The NCAA did not keep team points in 1928 and 1930-33; therefore, the team championships are considered "unofficial" by the governing body during those years. The Cowboys have finished second 11 times and third 11 times. At least one individual champion has been from Oklahoma State in 65 of the 83 NCAA tournaments. ALAN KELLY

1933 // 145 pounds

Alan Kelley capped a perfect 10-0 1933 season by storming to wins over Franklin&Marshall's Cassell in the first round of the NCAA Championships and Lehigh's B. Bishop in the second round. In the championship match, Kelley pinned Southwestern Oklahoma's F. Stout at the 12:12 mark to claim the 1933 NCAA Championship and earn Outstanding Wrestler honors. The next season, Kelley went 10-0 yet again and won his scond NCAA Championship. Of his 10 wins in 1934, seven came by fall.

ROSS FLOOD

Ross Flood compiled a 31-1 overall record in three years at Oklahoma State, capped by a perfect 11-0 mark in 1935 that was highlighted by a win by fall over Southwestern Oklahoma's Gott in the NCAA Championship match. Flood pinned his opponent in three of his four matches at the 1935 NCAA Championships en route to earning Outstanding Wrestler recognition. Flood won the final 27 matches of his career, with 17 of those victories coming by fall. He went on to win the silver medal at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

STANLEY HENSON

Stanley Henson was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1937 NCAA Championships. He pinned his first opponent, Doolittle of Lafayette at the 3:17 mark, then came back to pick up another win by fall in the second round when he pinned Iowa State's Linn at 6:45. A semifinal win over Chicago University's Finwall preceded Henson's NCAA Championship-winning match over Illinois' McIlvoy. Henson compiled a 31-1 record during his three years at Oklahoma State that included wins in each of his final 29 bouts.

JOE MCDANIEL

Joe McDaniel capped a perfect 1938 season by earning Outstanding Wrestler accolades at the NCAA Championships that year. McDaniel won each of his three matches at NCAAs that year, pinning Penn State's King at the 2:50 mark in his first match before winning by decision over Minnesota's Hanson in the semifinal and Indiana's Duffy in the championship match. McDaniel started his OSU career by losing two of his first three bouts. He didn't lose again after that, rattling off 27 consecutive wins to finish out his career.

AL WHITEHURST

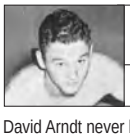
Al Whitehurst was tabbed as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1941 NCAA Championships after picking up four wins, two of which came by fall. Whitehurst claimed a 6-2 win over Michigan State's Maxwell in the championship match to cap a 1941 season in which he put together a perfect 10-0 record. Whitehurst finished his two-year OSU career with a 19-1 overall record, with his lone setback a 1-0 overtime defeat in his first season.



DAVID ARNDT

David Arndt never lost a match during his three-year career at Oklahoma State, stringing together a 23-0 career mark. A three-time NCAA champion, he was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler after storming through the 1942 NCAA Championships. Arndt picked up a healthy 13-3 win over Nebraska's Stout in his first match at NCAAs before replicating that score with a 13-3 wipeout of Rutgers' Paterno in his second match. Arndt pinned Cornell's Ellison at the 7:36 mark of the semifinal match before romping to an 18-5 win over Michigan's Johnson in the championship match.

CHARLES HETRICK

Charles Hetrick earned Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1949 NCAA Championships. Hetrick finished his perfect 12-0 campaign that year by picking up a 6-2 win over Virginia Military's Perry in the first round. He pinned Colorado's Karbatsch at the 5:40 mark in the second round before claiming a 4-2 win over Northern Iowa's Bush in the semifinal. The championship match resulted in a 4-1 Hetrick win over Cornell's Thomsen.

YOJIRO UETAKE

1965 and 1966 // 133 pounds

Just one year after winning the gold medal for his native Japan in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, Yojiro Uetake took the mat for Oklahoma State and rolled to Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1965 NCAA Championships. Uetake won each of his five matches at NCAAs that year, highlighted by a 6-1 win over Lehigh's Peritore in the championship match. His closest match at the 1965 NCAAs was a 5-3 semifinal win over Michigan State's Behm. He became the first Cowboy ever to be named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Championships twice when he secured that recognition in 1966 after steamrolling to five one-sided victories. Uetake pinned Lehigh's Peritore at the 4:31 mark of the championship match to cap a dominating run through the NCAA Championships in which he won his bouts by scores of 12-4, 11-2, 18-3 and 11-2. Uetake finished his collegiate career with a 57-0 record before going on to claim his second Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

DWAYNE KELLER

Dwayne Keller was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1968 NCAA Championships after picking up a series of hard-fought victories in each of his final three matches. Keller started his run with a 12-5 victory over UCLA's Vallance, then pinned Army's Patton. A pair of one-point wins over Indiana State's Parker (5-4) and SUNY-Cortland's DeSario (3-2) ensued, putting Keller into the championship match, where he claimed a 4-2 win over Portland State's Sanders. Keller won three NCAA championships during his freshman, sophomore and junior seasons at OSU and lost in the championship bout his senior year. He compiled a 64-1 record during his time at Oklahoma State.

DARRELL KELLER

Darrell Keller claimed Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1971 NCAA Championships after claiming the second of his two national titles. Keller stomped his first two opponents to the tune of a 6-0 win over Stanford's Thomas and an 8-0 win over Western Michigan's Bacon. Keller's semifinal match against Navy's Keaser was a classic, with Keller claiming an overtime win to set up a 16-12 victory over Washington's Owings in the championship match.

MIKE SHEETS

Mike Sheets went a perfect 29-0 in 1983 and was honored as the Outstading Wrestler of the NCAA Championships that year after dominating the competition. Sheets started his run by romping to a 29-2 win over St. Lawrence's Todd Northrup in the first round before crushing Portland State's Kevin Benson, 14-0 in the second round. Sheets beat Illinois State's Mike Jones, 6-0 in the quarterfinal before handing Nebraska's Ray Oliver a 5-1 defeat in the semis. A convincing 14-0 win over Navy's John Reich put a cap on Sheets' impressive performance.

JOHN SMITH

Just one year after winning the first of his U.S. Freestyle National Championships and claiming gold at the Goodwill Games in Moscow and well on his way toward establishing himself as the best wrestler in the world, John Smith was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1987 NCAA Championships. Smith crushed the opposition at NCAAs that year, pinning Drexel's Tim Rothka at the 6:30 mark in his first-round match before rolling to a 23-8 technical fall win over Michigan State's Dan Matauch in the second round. Smith made it two technical fall victories in a row when he handed Lehigh's Jim Frick a 22-7 beating in the third round. A 20-9 semifinal win over Ohio's Rob Johnson set up a rematch with Nebraska's Gil Sanchez for the national title. Sanchez handed Smith his only loss of the year in Smith's first match of the regular season. Smith avenged that loss with an 18-4 pounding of Sanchez for the crown.

CHRIS BARNES

Chris Barnes secured NCAA Outstanding Wrestler honors in 1990 after storming through the competition. Barnes pinned Duke's Keith Girvan at the 6:31 mark in the first round before picking up technical fall wins over North Carolina's Ben Oberly (19-4) and Rider's John Hangey (22-7) in the second and third rounds, respectively. William & Mary's Rob Larmore suffered a 14-8 defeat at the hands of Barnes in the semifinals before Barnes put a cap on his run to the NCAA crown with a 10-2 major decision victory over Minnesota's Marty Morgan in the championship match.

PAT SMITH

The only four-time national champion in Oklahoma State's illustrious histoy, Pat Smith earned Outstanding Wrestler honors his senior year at the 1994 NCAA Championships. Smith won by technical fall in each of his first two matches at NCAAs that year, claiming a 23-8 win over Kent State's Jim Andrassy in the first round before disposing of Nebraska's Jason Kraft by a 26-10 spread in the second round. Smith beat Oregon State's Dan Alar by a 14-3 major decision before moving on to the semifinals, where he beat Boston University's Earl Walker, 6-2. Smith was crowned with his fourth NCAA championship when he beat Michigan's Sean Bormet, 5-3 in the championship match.

COWBOY WRESTLING OLYMPIANS

Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times. That includes OSU three-time NCAA champion Yojiro Uetake, who took the gold medal twice for his home country of Japan and John Smith, who won two gold medals for the United States.

WRESTLING LEGEND ED GALLAGHER

By Mark Palmer (July 31, 2008)
Re-printed with permission

Thirty-four NCAA team titles. 133 individual NCAA champs. Over 400 NCAA All-Americans.

By any measure, Oklahoma State has built a wrestling legacy unmatched by any other college wrestling program over many decades. And the man who laid the strong foundation for that legacy is Ed Gallagher, Cowboys wrestling coach from 1916 through 1940.

As head coach, Gallagher's Cowboys racked up a 136-5-4 overall record for an incredible .952 winning percentage. During his 24 seasons at the reins, Gallagher's teams had nineteen undefeated seasons, winning eleven NCAA team titles. Gallagher coached 22 wrestlers to earn 37 individual national championships; seventeen of his Cowboys wrestled in Olympic competition, with three winning gold medals. Because of these accomplishments, Ed Gallagher's name adorns the arena at Oklahoma State… and he was named one of three "Best Wrestling Coaches" in an online poll of wrestling fans for the NCAA 75th Anniversary Team honors in 2005. (The other two coaches: Iowa State's Harold Nichols, and University of Iowa's Dan Gable.)

The Versatile Athlete Who Never Wrestled

Born September 5, 1887 in Perth, Kansas, Edward Clark Gallagher was a natural athlete, running track and playing football in high school. As a student at Oklahoma State -- then called Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College -- Gallagher set 100-yard dash and hurdle records that stood for thirty years. In 1908, he ran 99 yards for a touchdown against Kansas State, which still stands as an Oklahoma State record for longest run from scrimmage.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1909 with an engineering degree, Ed Gallagher stayed in Stillwater as the school's track coach. In 1913, he was lured away to Baker College in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he coached all sports … however, two years later, he was back at Oklahoma State, serving as athletic director.

During the 1914-1915 school year, Oklahoma State launched its wrestling program, with A.M. Colville as coach. That first season, the Cowboys wrestled only one dual meet – held in conjunction with a gymnastics event -- and were trounced by the University of Texas. The following year, Ed Gallagher took the helm of the wrestling program … despite never having wrestled in an organized program in high school or college.

Ed Gallagher's lack of mat experience may seem stunning these days, considering today's top college wrestling coaches have resumes loaded with high school state and national wrestling titles, NCAA championships and even international mat honors. Yet, when Gallagher was in school, organized wrestling programs were rare, outside those at YMCAs and men's clubs, or at eastern colleges … so opportunities to compete on the mat were very limited for someone from the Great Plains such as Gallagher.

The lack of on-the-mat experience ultimately didn't hurt Ed Gallagher and his Oklahoma State wrestlers. Admittedly, Gallagher's first season as head coach (1915-16) was a losing one; the Cowboys again had just one dual meet, again losing to Texas, this time by an even more lopsided 22.5-2.5 score. However, in his second year, Gallagher's matmen wrestled three duals, winning two (against Emporia State and Texas), and tying with Arkansas.

That winning momentum was sidelined after the 1916-17 season; because of World War I, there was no wrestling team at Oklahoma State, as most of the male students were serving in the military or reserves. However, when the program resumed in the 1919-20 school year, the Gallagher dynasty began its long, successful run as the dominant college wrestling program throughout the 1920s and 30s.

Engineering Success on the Mat

As an engineer, Ed Gallagher employed a systematic approach to the sport of wrestling … starting with how he selected young men to wrestle for Oklahoma State. He looked at their families, picking sons of "upstanding" parents … and favoring "only boys who cannot go out in society." In other words, those who might be considered economically disadvantaged, and would view wrestling as a springboard for success in life beyond the mat.

Gallagher also expected his wrestlers to live clean -- no smoking, no drinking, and, perhaps most startling nowadays, no dating. "The best woman in the world can do you no good," claimed the Cowboy coach. (No, Gallagher was not a confirmed bachelor; he married right out of college, and together, Ed and the former Mary Austella Taylor had a total of six children -- three boys, and three girls.) Along with clean living off the mat, Gallagher stressed clean behavior on the mat. He wanted his men to wrestle tough, with determination … but with character, and good sportsmanship.

In selecting wrestlers for his program, Gallagher also favored a specific type of physique. He sought "lean plainsmen" -- tall, slim, strong men, rather than compact, muscular types who were typical in college wrestling even 80-90 years ago. Ideally, these long, lean wrestlers must have quick reactions, according to the coach's criteria.

Ed Gallagher's engineering background also guided his primary focus -- the study of leverage, and how it applied to wrestling. Using a human skeleton and rubber bands, he spent hours figuring out holds and counters -- one report saying he spent at least two hours a day in his office on this task. The Cowboy coach developed, by his own count, 400-500 holds and variations; he expected each of his men to know at least 200 of those.

Perhaps most surprising, Ed Gallagher was open about sharing his scientific approach to wrestling. His teams often put on wrestling demonstrations before or after a dual meet in an opponent's gym. In 1939, he and his Cowboys were featured in a three-page "how-to-wrestle" feature for the popular photo-magazine, "Life." In addition, he wrote two very popular instructional books, titled simply "Amateur Wrestling" and "Wrestling."

Break it Down

Here's a specific example of how the engineer in Ed Gallagher guided his instruction of his wrestlers: He told them to think of an opponent on all fours as a table. To succeed, his wrestlers need to "break" at least one leg of the table. If the opponent's arms were weak, that was the point of attack; if the arms were strong, go for the legs.

Another way to "break" an opponent, according to Gallagher: Make more than one attempt or counter. Continue a string of attacks until you have opponent under control. In other words, never give up.

Not all of Ed Gallagher's ideas came from his own engineering mind. According to the book about the history of the Oklahoma State wrestling program, "Cowboys Ride Again!" Gallagher picked up a tip from 1920s professional wrestling champ Ed "Strangler" Lewis: If possible, "take two deep breaths and immediately pitch back viciously. To do this correctly, break out of the predicament first, and, step back and draw the breaths. Now, he (the opponent) will see this and either follow suit or at least temporarily relax, and you can catch him somewhat relaxed."

Eat to Win

Coach Gallagher made a science of studying the diet of his wrestlers. He generally allowed his wrestlers to eat what they wanted, as long as it what was what they typically consumed, in reasonable quantities. However, he discouraged his wrestlers from consuming cold drinks.

He focused on glycogen, the form in which sugar is used in the body, turning one-third of that into carbon dioxide, and the remaining two-thirds to water and lactic acid -- the cause of oxygen debt, leading to hard breathing during exertion in workouts and during a wrestling match.

After weigh-ins, instead of chowing down with a big meal as most wrestlers did in the 1920s and 30s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually contented themselves with hot tea, sweetened with brown sugar, honey or Karo syrup. He wanted his men to be "properly sugared" especially when trying to make weight.

Your Great-Grandfather's Cowboys

College wrestling of the Ed Gallagher era differs significantly in a number of ways from the sport we know today. For starters, the Cowboys wrestled just 5-8 dual meets in a typical season in the 1920s and 30s. Each regulation match lasted ten minutes. There was no point scoring system; matches were won by a pin (back then, shoulders had to be on the mat for a full three seconds), or by "time advantage" -- essentially, whoever had the most riding time. In 1938 -- towards the end of Gallagher's coaching career -- this system was replaced, with the referee making the decision as to who won. The referee decision system didn't last; in 1941, the beginnings of today's point system made their appearance in college wrestling.

Perhaps the most startling difference for today's fans: For home meets, the Oklahoma State wrestlers competed in a roped-off ring, like those for boxing or professional wrestling. The actual wrestling area was the same as on-the-floor mats in other college events. In reviewing "NCAA Wrestling Guides" of the era -- the annual rules-and-results publication for high school and college wrestling -- there are diagrams governing ring size, number of ropes, what the ropes should be made of, and how they should be secured… but nothing about rules governing how the ring could be used. The only hint: In "Cowboys Ride Again!" there's a description of a match in which an angry Oklahoma State wrestler threw an opponent over the top rope, which apparently was against the rules… but the Cowboy wasn't disqualified, and the match resumed.

The Cowboys weren't alone in wrestling in roped-off rings. According to college yearbook photos, teams at Indiana University, University of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers College (now University of Northern Iowa), and Northwestern University also had rings for home meets 70-80 years ago. (The NCAA banned wrestling rings in the early 1940s.)

The gear Ed Gallagher's men wore to wrestle was radically different, too. No one-piece black-and-orange, synthetic-fabric singlets for the Cowboys back then. During the more than two decades Gallagher coached at Oklahoma State, his wrestlers wore a variety of uniforms. Through much of the 1920s, his wrestlers wore full-length wool tights. There was a time where the Cowboys wore tights with what was called a black Tom -- also known as an outside supporter -- on top of the tights. Towards the late 1930s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually wore wool trunks, much like we associate with pro wrestling, with no tights.

Despite these variations in what the Cowboys wore below the waist, throughout the 1920s and 30s they usually wrestled bare-chested at home meets and at events at colleges in the Midwest and Southwest. However, when wrestling in the east, Gallagher's wrestlers would often be required to put on sleeveless shirts, at the request of the school hosting the event. (An NCAA rule change in the mid 1960s prohibited shirtless wrestling.) Going all the way to the top … headgear was not required as it is now, and a very rare sight in the Gallagher era.

When not wrestling, the Oklahoma State wrestlers often traveled in gear appropriate to their team name. Outfitted in Stetson hats, colorful flannel shirts, and cowboy boots, team members made an incredible impression wherever they traveled. Adding to the Cowboy mystique, some team members performed rope tricks in opponents' gyms before some dual meets.

The Cowboy Way of Winning

No matter what they wore -- or whether they wrestled in a ring or mats on the floor -- Ed Gallagher's Oklahoma State Cowboys dominated the college wrestling scene for more than two decades. In the years after World War I, the Cowboys never had a losing season. In fact, in the eleven-year period from the 1919-20 through the 1930-31 seasons, the Cowboys never lost a dual meet. That's 69 consecutive wins!

Among the Cowboys' opponents during the Roaring Twenties: University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas, Kansas State, Texas, Iowa State, Cornell College of Iowa … as well as farther-flung teams such as West Virginia, the U.S. Naval Academy, and the Philadelphia Athletic Club. Who broke the eleven-year, 70-match winning streak? Cross-state rivals Oklahoma. The Sooners beat the Cowboys by one point in the last dual meet of the 1931-32 season. During the rest of the decade, the Cowboys had only one other loss (at Southwestern Oklahoma State in the 1936-37 season) … and three ties. Most victories were by a substantial margin.

In 1928, the NCAA launched a national wrestling championship to conclude the dual-meet season. At the very first NCAAs -- held at the Armory at Iowa State -- Oklahoma State claimed four individual titles out of a total of seven weight classes.

That was no fluke; in the thirteen years of NCAA competition, the men coached by Ed Gallagher ruled the national championships each year. The leanest year for Cowboys was 1936, when just one wrestler -- Harley "Doc" Strong -- won a title. However, in a typical year, at least three Cowboys brought home an individual championship.

During the Gallagher era, 22 individual wrestlers won a total of 37 NCAA titles. Among the Cowboys who won three championships (back when freshmen were not eligible for NCAA/varsity competition): Earl McCready (the very first three-time college champ), Jack VanBebber, Conrad Caldwell, Rex Peery, Ross Flood, Joe McDaniel, and Stanley Henson.

Ed Gallagher's men did incredibly well on the ultimate international stage, too. From 1924 through 1936, Oklahoma State had fifteen wrestlers qualify for the U.S. Olympic wrestling teams … along with Earl McCready wrestling for his native Canada at the 1928 Olympics, and Canadian big man George Chiga competing for his home team at the 1936 Olympics. Of these Cowboy Olympians, four earned medals in freestyle competition. At the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Bobby Pearce won gold at 123 pounds, while Jack VanBebber claimed gold at 158.5. In the 1936 Berlin Olympics, Ross Flood brought home a silver medal at 123 pounds, and Frank Lewis won gold at 158.5.

Coach Gallagher's Toughest Battle

For years, Ed Gallagher dealt with the challenges of Parkinson's, the same disease afflicting legendary boxing champ Muhammad Ali and actor Michael J. Fox today. In 1936, Oklahoma State and the entire Stillwater community put on a fundraising event at the school's Lewis Field football stadium so that coach Gallagher could travel with his wrestlers to the Berlin Olympics … then take a side trip to Vienna to be tested by physicians there, at the request of his son Clarence, a doctor.

It was about this time that construction began on a new, $500,000 arena on the Oklahoma State campus that would serve as home for the Cowboy basketball and wrestling programs. Completed in 1939, what was originally called the 4-H Club and Student Activity Building was state-of-the-art for the time, featuring an air-cooling system … and over 5,000 theater-type seats, as well as collapsible bleachers for wrestling events, bringing total seating capacity to nearly 9,000 fans.

February 3, 1939 was declared "Gallagher Day" in Stillwater, in honor of the beloved wrestling coach. It was that day that the new arena -- nicknamed "the Madison Square Garden of the Midwest" -- was officially dedicated. That night, the facility hosted its first event, a dual meet with Indiana University, one of the top programs of the era. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers 18-9.

At the end of the 1939-40 season, outdoorsman and hunter Ed Gallagher went to the Rocky Mountains for an extended vacation. While in Colorado, he collapsed and died on August 28, 1940 … just a week shy of his 54th birthday.

His funeral was held at the new arena that had been named in his honor (and is still home to the wrestling Cowboys, now called Gallagher-Iba Arena, having been substantially upgraded and expanded in 2001.) Thousands came for the funeral for the man referred to in obituaries as "the Dean of Collegiate Wrestling" and "the Knute Rockne of the Mats" (referring to the legendary Notre Dame football coach killed in a plane crash a few years' earlier).

Reading the text of the 1939 "Gallagher Day" souvenir program and the 1940 Redskin yearbook -- the last featuring Ed Gallagher as coach -- has added poignancy now. Even though he had been battling Parkinson's for years, there was optimism in the words in these publications produced in the last year of his life. In the "Gallagher Day" program, long-time friend and sportswriter Randle Perdue began his profile of the coach with this positive paragraph:

"The big news about Ed Gallagher is that he is improving in health! In recent weeks he has found a new medicine, the result of long search by his son, Dr. Clarence Gallagher, and evidently it is effective. Ed has gained nearly twenty pounds in weight. He is more cheerful, more hopeful. He is optimistic about the future. In fact, he has made a date to go quail hunting next fall. It will be his first time in about five years. When Ed gets back to quail hunting, he will be the Ed Gallagher of old."

In the 1940 Redskin yearbook, the last line of text in the description of the Cowboys' 1939-40 season closes with "With two intercollegiate champions and several intercollegiate runners-up returning, Coach Gallagher should have little trouble turning out another national championship for Oklahoma A. and M. College in 1940-1941." (Art Griffith became the Oklahoma State head wrestling coach upon Gallagher's passing in 1940. The Cowboys were 6-0 for the 1940-41 season, winning four individual titles and the team title at the 1941 NCAAs.)

The Gallagher Legacy

In tallying up the accomplishments of the Ed Gallagher era, the stats are impressive: 19 undefeated seasons out of 23 … only two losses in the last nine seasons … six AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) team titles … ten outright NCAA team titles (tied for first for an eleventh)… 73 NCAA and AAU individual champs … and three Olympic gold medalists.

Ed Gallagher's legacy goes far beyond those stats. He coached a number of wrestlers who went on to become high school and college wrestling coaches themselves. Among the Cowboys turned coaches: Cliff Keen at the University of Michigan … Paul Keen at Oklahoma … Buell Patterson, who coached at Kent State, Nebraska and Illinois… Rex Peery at Pittsburgh … Fendley Collins at Michigan State … Joe McDaniel at Syracuse and Wyoming … and Orion Stuteville at Northwestern.

Buell Patterson weighed in with his thoughts on coach Gallagher: "A reason that the men who have worked under Ed like him so well is that if he lost a match, they never received a bawling out. And believe me, it is a lot of satisfaction to give all one has for a man and know that what one gives will be satisfactory with him, even if one makes mistakes."

Another one of his coaching protégés, Carl "Dutch" Voyles (who coached at Duke and William & Mary), said of his mentor: "No one ever said an unkind word about him. That must have been because Ed was so full of kindness himself … there are all too few men like Gallagher in this world of ours."

In his article about Ed Gallagher for the 1939 "Gallagher Day" program, Randle Perdue said of the man he had known since 1911:

"Applicable adjectives, on which Ed's friends all agree as describing him, include honest, fair, clean, square, quiet, unassuming, uncomplaining, canny, crafty, foxy, firm, shrewd, fearless, modest, sincere, stubborn, determined, and uncompromising – altogether friendly and possessing a fine sense of humor…"

"Gallagher has never been cocky, or disagreeably boastful. He has taken his victories graciously. He has never complained about a referee's decision -- at least not publicly."

The legacy of Ed Gallagher lives on in so many ways, beyond having his name on an arena … or the annual award that bears his name, given to an Oklahoma State wrestling alumnus. (Among the past honorees: Bobby Douglas, Doug Blubaugh, John Smith, Pat Smith, and Kenny Monday.) His analytical, engineering-based approach to amateur wrestling revolutionized the sport. The success of his Cowboys helped launch high school wrestling programs throughout the state of Oklahoma, making the Sooner State a leading hotbed for wrestling to this day. What's more, the foundation of success laid by Ed Gallagher and his wrestlers has been built upon over the decades to the point where today, the Oklahoma State Cowboys still claim the most individual and team titles in NCAA wrestling.

ED GALLAGHER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1916-40

He was a pioneer, not only of wrestling techniques but also of wrestling tradition. From Oklahoma State University, where his coaching achievements were unparalleled, Ed Gallagher's influence spread across the nation. Long after his death in 1940, the torch was carried onward by Gallagher's pupils, who became great coaches in their own right .

As a collegian, Gallagher excelled in football and track. He was clocked once in 9.8 seconds while winning the 100-yard dash in the Southwest Conference meet, and his 99-yard run in the Kansas State football game that same year, 1908, still stands as the OSU school record.

He earned his degree in electrical engineering, but chose a career of coaching football and track and teaching physical education. He remained at his alma mater several years, then went to Baker University in Kansas. In 1916, he returned to Oklahoma State as director of athletics.

Gallagher introduced scientific wrestling to gym glasses and put his first varsity team on the mat that year. He applied his engineering knowledge of leverage and stress to the development of more than 400 wrestling holds. He was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams. His wrestlers won 138 dual meets, tied four and lost only five. During the 10 years prior to 1932 his teams scored 69 consecutive victories.

When the NCAA tournament was inaugurated in 1928, halfway through his coaching career, Gallagher's wrestlers won four of the seven individual titles, earning recognition as the first championship team. Competing in 13 national meets, Gallagher's teams reigned supreme 10 times and shared an 11th title. Along the way, they won 37 individual NCAA titles, 32 National AAU crowns, and three Olympic gold medals.

As one of the great coaches in the history of the sport, Edward Clark Gallagher is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ART GRIFFITH

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1941-56

He always felt a coach should lead his wrestlers to championships, and Art Griffith lived up to that ideal. In 30 years of coaching, he took his teams to 77 tournaments and never left the scene without at least one gold medal.

Griffith's coaching career spanned two great dynasties, first for 15 years at Central High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and then for 13 seasons at Oklahoma State University. His records were fabulous.

His high school teams won 94 of 100 matches, 50 of them in a row, and 10 Oklahoma scholastic championships. A dozen times, his Braves were undefeated, and they won the only two national high school tournaments conducted.

Succeeding Edward C. Gallagher, he took the reins at Oklahoma State in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships in 13 attempts. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Another lasting contribution was Griffith's development of the point scoring system for wrestling bouts, which in early days were determined only by falls or time advantage. Griffith served in many roles throughout his career, but the effect of his coaching greatness was most evident in 1941. Of the 16 National Collegiate finalists that year, all but two had been coached by Griffith either in high school or college.

For his legendary exploits as a wrestling coach, Art Griffith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

MYRON RODERICK

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1954-56/Head Coach, 1957-69

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. And there was no interlude between his two careers. From national champion in 1956 to the new torch-bearer of the great Oklahoma State coaching tradition in 1957 was an abrupt but highly successful transition.

In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

His wrestlers won 20 individual NCAA titles and four gold medals in the Olympic Games. He also coached his teams to two National AAU championships, was the United States coach in the 1963 World Games and was assistant coach in the 1964 Olympics.

Roderick departed from tradition in one respect. He carried his personal intensity into a search for quality wrestlers and, more than any other man, introduced recruiting on a major scale into the sport of wrestling.

As the first executive director of the U. S. Wrestling Federation, he established the foundation of USA Wrestling, the sport's national governing body. He saw the need for a National Wrestling Hall of Fame and worked not only to bring the dream to life, but also to ensure its future.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and coach, and his lifelong leadership in the sport, Myron Willis Roderick is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JACK VAN BEBBER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1929-31

He vanquished the nation's finest wrestlers seven times, but when Jack VanBebber set out to conquer the world, he had to hitch-hike. At the 1932 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, while awaiting his final bout for the gold medal, VanBebber suddenly learned that the time schedule had been altered and he was due on the mat within the hour, six miles away. No transportation was provided, or available, so he set out afoot. After two miles, a passing motorist gave him a ride to the arena.

Once at the scene, however, his opponent proved no more effective than his earlier victims. And "Blackjack" VanBebber became champion of the world with a decision over Eino Leino of Finland, a four-time Olympian who already owned gold, silver and bronze medals.

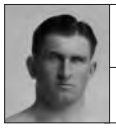
VanBebber was undefeated as a collegiate wrestler for Oklahoma State University in 1929, '30 and '31, winning three NCAA championships at 155 and 165 pounds. He captured National AAU titles his junior and senior years, then moved to Los Angeles in 1932 and won another.

The only defeat of his wrestling career came in an early round of the Olympic trials, but he rallied to win the trials and successfully defended his 158.5-pound assignment during final challenge bouts in Los Angeles. For more than 50 years he was the only American-born wrestler to win three NCAA titles and an Olympic gold medal.

VanBebber served four years in the infantry during World War II, three of them in the Pacific theater. He then joined the Phillips Petroleum Company for 39 years until his retirement, and taught wrestling to sons of company employees and to Boy Scouts.

In 1950, a national poll of U. S. coaches, officials and sports editors selected him as one of the country's top 10 amateur athletes in the first half of the 20th Century.

In recognition of his outstanding achievements as a competitor, Jack Francis VanBebber is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



EARL MCCREADY

Class of 1977
Wrestler, 1928-30

His nickname was "Moose" -maybe because of his home town in Saskatchewan, Canada, but more likely because of Earl McCready's stature as the first great heavyweight wrestler of the collegiate events.

International recruiting was unheard-of in the mid-1920s, but in 1926 Fendley Collins and two teammates from Oklahoma State drove to Vancouver and won the Canadian national freestyle tournament. They liked the looks of the strapping 220-pound youngster named McCready and talked him into following them back to their campus.

Under the guidance of Coach Edward C. Gallagher, he won every match for three years, all but three of them by falls. He was the anchor man, the cleanup hitter, for three undefeated championship teams. "We never worried if the match was close," one of his teammates recalls. "We knew Moose would get them, and he always did."

McCready wrestled in the first three NCAA tournaments in 1928-29-30, and won the championship each year, thus becoming the first three-time champion in collegiate history. It was 20 years before another heavyweight could match that. In the 1928 finals, he won by a fall in 19 seconds, still a record for an NCAA meet held under collegiate rules.

He also won four national freestyle championships, one in the United States and three in Canada, and represented Canada in the 1928 Olympic Games, carrying his country's banner in the opening ceremonies. He won a gold medal in the 1930 British Empire Games.

As a collegiate athlete, McCready was a three-year football letterman at guard, winning all-star honors in 1929.

He wrestled professionally for 28 years, including a match in the famed Royal Albert Hall in London. He was the first wrestler to demonstrate the sport on British television.

As a wrestler of great achievement, one who set the pattern for those who followed, Earl Gray McCready is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ROSS FLOOD

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1933-35

One of his ancestors, Daniel Boone, was a fair-to-middlin' sharpshooter, and when Ross Flood went hunting for wrestling championships his aim was just as good.

At Blackwell, Ross and his brother John became the first twins to win Oklahoma high school championships. Then Ross pursued his wrestling career at Oklahoma State University under Coach Edward C. Gallagher.

Undefeated in 30 matches at 126 pounds, he won three National Collegiate championships in 1933, '34 and '35, each time leading the Cowboys to NCAA team honors. As a senior he was voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament.

His achievements continued to mount when he won National AAU championships in 1935 and '36 and another outstanding wrestler trophy. He then earned a place on the U. S. Olympic team and captured the silver medal at 123 pounds in the Berlin Games.

In the 1937 Pan American Exposition at Dallas, he won the gold medal at the expense of three other national champions, despite severe rib injuries which brought an end to his competitive career.

For six years he was a successful high school coach in Stillwater, then entered the Navy to spend five years as a physical instructor, including wartime service in the Pacific theater. He returned to coaching in 1946 to revive the wrestling program at Southwestern Oklahoma State, then purchased a livestock auction in Stillwater, which he operated for three decades.

Billy Sheridan, the famed Lehigh coach, often declared that Ross Flood provided the best example he had ever seen of wrestling skills and techniques.

In recognition of his tremendous achievements as a wrestling champion, Aaron Ross Flood is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

STANLEY HENSON

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1937-39

In the never-ending debate over who has been America's greatest wrestler, the name of Stanley Henson always receives plenty of support. His record as a competitor speaks for itself.

Henson's career was blessed by the leadership of two Hall of Fame coaches. At Tulsa Central High School, under Art Griffith, he wrestled two years, won two state championships and the outstanding wrestler award as a senior.

Then he joined the Oklahoma State University team of Edward C. Gallagher. Defeated only once in three seasons, Henson won three NCAA championships and each time led the Cowboys to the team title.

In 1937, he became the first sophomore to be voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament. He continued to excel the next two years, but the nation's coaches were not yet ready to present their cherished award to any man a second time. He also won the Pan American Exposition in 1937 and scored a 1938 double with the National AAU freestyle title. As his junior year drew to a close with two championships, Henson already was thinking more of medical school than of wrestling.

During a European tour in the fall of 1938, he suffered a severe shoulder injury which hampered him during his senior year but couldn't prevent a third NCAA title, this one at 155 pounds after two at 145.

After five years as a physical instructor and wrestling assistant at the Naval Academy, Henson was able to concentrate fully on the study of medicine, completing his degree in 1950 at the University of Maryland.

A highly respected surgeon, he was one of the first to combine his athletic and medical interests in the rapidly growing field of sports medicine, where he became a nationally known lecturer and consultant.

As a dominant figure in the sport of wrestling and a continuing example of the qualities of self-discipline, sportsmanship and integrity, Dr. Stanley Willard Henson Jr. is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DOUG BLUBAUGH

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1955-57

In the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Doug Blubaugh battled the world champion from Iran for the Olympic gold medal. Emamali Habibi had never known defeat.

Three times the Persian attacked, each time throwing the young American into danger. Then a swift counterattack from Blubaugh hurled his opponent to his back ... suddenly the struggle was ended.

Thus did an Oklahoma farm boy reach the apex of a brilliant athletic career, earning the 1960 Olympic gold medal at 160.5 pounds, and with it recognition as the outstanding wrestler in the world.

Doug Blubaugh was no stranger to the role of champion. He won NCAA honors for Oklahoma State in 1957 and National AAU Freestyle titles in 1957, when he was named outstanding wrestler, and 1959.

A year before his Olympic conquest, he won a gold medal in the 1959 Pan American Games at Chicago, matching the 1955 achievement of his brother, Jack. They were the first brothers to capture Pan Am titles.

Blubaugh is remembered, too, for his epic struggles with a former college teammate, Phil Kinyon. Over four years of Freestyle competition, they met 13 times. The first 12 bouts ended in draws, 11 scoreless. Five of these were in the 1960 Olympic trials, before Blubaugh crashed through for the takedown and victory that sent him on to Olympic glory.

From a competitive career totaling more than 400 victories against just 17 defeats, Blubaugh turned to coaching and won added respect for his teaching skills and his honesty and dedication. After seven years as an assistant at Michigan State, during which he was Freestyle coach of U. S. teams in the 1971 Pan American Games and World Championships, he spent a decade as head coach at Indiana University.

As a champion athlete of awesome achievement, and as a living example to young men of the highest standards of character and integrity, Douglas Morlan Blubaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FRANK LEWIS

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1933-35

As a tall, skinny college freshman, Frank Lewis was "a little tired" after six years of wrestling and planned to give full attention to his studies at Oklahoma State University.

But he needed a physical education credit and a wrestling class would provide an easy grade. Members of the class were required to compete in the all-college intramurals and when he failed to win the championship his pride was stung. He decided to concentrate on wrestling again.

Frank Lewis concentrated so well that he became a national champion and the gold medalist in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin.

A state high school champ and four-time medalist from 100 to 155 pounds, he possessed the raw talent from which coach Edward C. Gallagher could mold a winner. But because of his rapid growth, the youngster didn't have the stamina to wrestle the longer college matches. And because of a minor heart condition, his coach had to devise a special training routine to build stamina without putting a strain on his health.

Despite these difficulties, he established a collegiate record of 45-5, winning the NCAA title in 1935 after placing second the year before. Both years he contributed vital points to the Cowboys' team trophies.

In 1935, he won the National AAU crown and became the first contestant to be officially recognized as outstanding wrestler of a National AAU tournament, receiving a gold watch for this honor. A year later, he swept undefeated through the series of Olympic trials, then defended his position against his alternate on the boat to Europe.

In the Games, he scored a fall the first day, another the second day. He wrestled three times the third day, but stamina no longer was a problem and two more falls offset a narrow loss to Tur Andersson of Sweden as Frank Lewis became the only American to win a championship.

As a wrestler of ultimate achievement and a lifelong example of perseverance and dedication to goals, Frank Wiatt Lewis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE MCDANIEL

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1937-39

He was destined to be an Olympic champion, but the Games of the XII Olympiad were engulfed in the holocaust of World War II. So Joe McDaniel had to settle merely for recognition as the outstanding wrestler of the world.

Three times he was a National Collegiate winner for Oklahoma State University, each year leading the Cowboys of Coach Edward C. Gallagher to the team trophy. As a 118-pound junior, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the 1938 tournament, an honor won a year earlier by his roommate, Stanley Henson. Three times he reigned as National AAU champion, twice as a collegian when the Cowboys also won team honors, and again in 1941, two years after graduation.

McDaniel's only serious exposure to international competition came at the close of his junior year, in a 1938 European tour climaxed by a tournament at Stockholm, Sweden, among the leading wrestling nations of the world. He was undefeated in 12 bouts and scored an overwhelming victory over Odon Zombori of Hungary, winner of the Olympic gold two years earlier.

Despite a three-year hitch in the Air Corps and seven years as field representative for a major steel firm, McDaniel never has been far from the sport of wrestling.

After a year of high school coaching and another at Maryland, he returned from the war to coach 11 years at Syracuse University, leading the Orange to a fourth place national finish. In 1963, he moved to Wyoming, coaching two years in high school and eight at the University.

His career turned full circle in 1973, when he returned to his home town of Sulphur, Oklahoma, to serve as high school coach. In 30 years of coaching at all levels, his record was 257 victories against 105 defeats.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and his long years of service to the sport, Joe Clark McDaniel is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

YOJIRO UETAKE

Class of 1980
Wrestler, 1964-66

After winning the national high school championship of Japan, he came to the United States to complete his education. By the time Yojiro Uetake returned to his native land, he had given a whole generation of American wrestlers an education in winning technique.

He won all 58 of his collegiate matches for Oklahoma State University and three Big Eight Conference titles. Three times a NCAA champion, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the NCAA tournament as a junior and again as a senior.

After his sophomore year of competition in 1964, "Yo-Jo" returned home to Japan to win the Olympic gold medal in Tokyo. Four years later, in Mexico City, he repeated this achievement and became the first Japanese wrestler ever to win two championships in the Olympic Games.

He was the complete wrestler, blending speed, strength and unparalleled skills to dominate all areas of the sport-takedowns, control, escapes and falls. Seldom did any opponent score offensive points against him.

"I don't know how good he was," said his collegiate coach, Myron Roderick. "because I never saw him challenged."

Such was the range of his ability that every match became a small "clinic" in itself, attracting coaches and rival contestants from all parts of the arena to learn from his masterful techniques.

While preparing for his second Olympic crown, he spent two years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, then returned home to become Japan's national freestyle coach. He guided his country's wrestlers into the 1972 Olympics at Munich and the 1976 Games at Montreal.

Upon his marriage, he took the surname of his wife's family, Obata. As an athlete of awesome skills and ultimate achievement, Yojiro Uetake Obata is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DAVID "BUDDY" ARNDT

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1941-46

Is it possible for a champion to walk away from the mat for three full years and return to compete at the same high level? Buddy Arndt did just that and became the only wrestler to win National Collegiate championships on both sides of World War II.

His only coach in wrestling, Hall of Famer Art Griffith, was a man who hated to lose. With that leadership in both high school and college, and his own exceptional ability, Arndt never met defeat. He won every match in three years at Tulsa Central High School and two state championships, missing one state meet because of illness. As a sophomore at Oklahoma State, he captured his first NCAA title at 145 pounds and won all six bouts in the National AAU tournament, only to settle for second place under the international scoring rules.

But as a junior, in 1942, Arndt was clearly the nation's best wrestler, sweeping National Collegiate and AAU honors and earning the outstanding wrestler trophy in both tournaments. Both seasons he competed a full class above his normal weight to make room in the Aggie lineup for another national champion.

But athletics then were overshadowed by the war and Arndt spent the next three years as a P-38 fighter pilot, flying more than 100 combat missions over Italy with the 15th Air Corps. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with four clusters and also collected six Bronze Battle Stars for action in major battles.

He returned to college after the war, this time competing at his natural weight of 136 pounds, won his third NCAA championship and, for the third time, led the Aggies to the team trophy.

As a man who excelled in the battles of sport, and in the far greater struggles of real life, David B. Arndt is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

CONRAD CALDWELL

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1929-31

He won the National Collegiate championship in only the fifth bout he ever wrestled. But that NCAA title was just the beginning of Conrad Caldwell's spectacular career.

He did not compete in wrestling at Commerce, Oklahoma, High School and indeed had never seen the sport until he enrolled at Oklahoma State, where Hall of Fame coach Edward C. Gallagher recruited him from a gym class and promised to turn him into a national champion.

His pre-tournament experience consisted of two matches as a substitute heavyweight. Then in three bouts as a 165-pounder in the 1929 NCAA meet, he fulfilled Coach Gallagher's prophecy. He repeated, at 175 pounds, in 1930 and '31 to become only the third wrestler to win three collegiate crowns.

Caldwell was a standout amid an awesome array of Aggie talent that included teammates Earl McCready, Jack VanBebber, Bobby Pearce and LeRoy McGuirk. One night in 1931, Caldwell applied the finishing touches to a dual meet victory over Kansas State that required only 19 minutes, 33 seconds of wrestling by the entire team.

In 1932, he moved to California and competed five years for the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The only defeat of his career came in the first round of the 1932 Olympic trials. He came back to win the trials at 191 pounds, only to see another wrestler chosen in his place for the Games.

Through 1936, Caldwell was unbeaten from 174 pounds through heavyweight-and on one occasion, all three weights at one time. In a 1933 dual meet with UCLA, he weighed in at 174 but found his teammates at 191 and heavyweight were absent. He pinned the UCLA 174 pounder, won a decision at 191 and after a 10-minute struggle pinned the heavyweight, an all-Coast football tackle.

In recognition of his achievements as one of wrestling's pioneer champions, Conrad C. Caldwell is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BOBBY PEARCE

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1930-32

He took up wrestling as a youngster to strengthen himself physically in a constant struggle with allergies. But despite his frail physique, Bobby Pearce won championships at all levels.

The coach at Cushing, Oklahoma, High School, Matt Berg, allowed him to join the squad despite some misgivings. Pearce rewarded him with three undefeated seasons and three state championships. As a high school senior, he reached the semifinals of the 1928 Olympic trials.

Then he joined the awesome array of talent at Oklahoma State, helping extend the winning streak of coach Edward C. Gallagher's Aggies to 70 consecutive matches. Over-all, during his collegiate days, he won 60 bouts, lost four and tied one.

A fast and aggressive wrestler, Pearce liked to go for the quick fall, and once flattened his opponent in just 11 seconds.

Pearce was National AAU champion in 1930 and '31, won the NCAA title in 1931 and was runner-up in 1932. Although he was upset in the collegiate finals as a senior, he responded with the ultimate triumph, winning the gold medal in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, first ever for an Oklahoma wrestler.

Although only a 126-pounder, he competed professionally for five years and at the same time turned his hand to coaching. He guided Cushing to the state high school championship in 1933 and coached a YMCA team for two years before embarking on a professional career in refinery engineering.

He returned to coaching briefly 20 years later at Mesa College in Colorado, leading that team to two undefeated seasons and a conference championship.

As a champion of great achievement and success over physical difficulties, Robert Edward Pearce is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

GUY LOOKABAUGH

Class of 1983
Wrestler, 1919-21

As the first superstar of Oklahoma State University athletics, Guy Lookabaugh helped establish a wrestling dynasty that spanned half a century. He earned headlines in football, but in wrestling was recognized as one of the greatest athletes of his time. Lookabaugh enrolled in 1917 and immediately became a football hero. He enlisted in the Army, but returned after the war to become known as the first "Super Aggie."
In 1920, coach Ed Gallagher's wrestlers made a bid for national recognition, facing a mighty Nebraska team undefeated for five years. With his team trailing, Lookabaugh took the mat at 158 pounds and battled his way through a 27-minute overtime match for a difficult decision. In the final bout, the Aggies had victory within reach, but had no one to send against Nebraska's unbeaten 175-pound star. Coach Gallagher again called upon Lookabaugh, who responded with a "regulation" 21-minute decision to give the Oklahomans their first major wrestling triumph.

Lookabaugh, nicknamed "Ducky," never lost a college match. His career preceded the NCAA tournaments, but in 1921 he won championships of three conferences-the Missouri Valley (Big Eight), Western (Big Ten) and Southwest. His flamboyant style was evident in his first big Freestyle tournament. Facing Eino Leino, a Finn who would win four Olympic medals, Lookabaugh threw him out of the ring and pinned him on the floor. The referee ruled it an illegal fall.

Lookabaugh turned to coaching in 1922-23, but returned to school to train for the 1924 Olympics. He reached the finals at Paris, only to lose an unpopular split decision. He coached three years at Kansas and helped Dr. R.G. Clapp formulate rules for the first NCAA tournament in 1928. He coached at Northeastern Oklahoma and Grinnell of Iowa until 1940.

In recognition of his monumental athletic achievements and his influence on the lives of young people for more than half a century, Guy Howard Lookabaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BOBBY DOUGLAS

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1965

The Making of a Champion is the title of his book, and it also is the pattern of Bobby Douglas' life. From a small town in eastern Ohio, and a small college in West Virginia, he rose to become a dominant athlete of the 1960s, earning national and international acclaim.

He won two state high school titles, and was All-State in football and baseball. He emerged on the national scene as 1962 NAIA champion for West Liberty State. A year later, he reached the NCAA finals, and his 13-8 duel with the defending champion from a larger school was a classic. Transferring to Oklahoma State, he won the Big Eight, but was knocked out of the 1965 nationals by injury, closing his collegiate career at 72-2.

It was in the international styles where Douglas earned worldwide renown, for his knowledge of the sport and his technical skills ... which he later would share with another generation as coach, author and clinician. He won three national Freestyle titles and represented the United States on two Olympic teams, placing fourth in 1964, and six World teams, winning a silver, a bronze and a fourth place. He was captain of the '68 Olympic team and his career record was 303 victories, 17 defeats.

He became head wrestling coach at Santa Barbara in 1973. A year later, he moved to Arizona State, which he led to the only NCAA team trophy won by a western school. Douglas also launched the Sunkist Kids club on a long series of national Freestyle championships. He moved on to Iowa State and maintained its great tradition. He was an assistant coach for 10 World and Olympic Teams, was World Cup coach in 1987 and Olympic coach in 1992.

He was the first black American to wrestle in the Olympics, the first to captain our Olympic team, and the first to coach wrestling at a major university. He showed, by example, that others could reach such goals.

As a wrestler of notable achievement, and as an outstanding teacher and leader, Bobby Eddie Douglas is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

TOMMY CHESBRO

Wrestler, 1959-60/Head Coach 1970-84

When he returned to Oklahoma State University as only its fourth head wrestling coach, Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed by not one, but three Hall of Famers.

But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats, a 90 per cent winning record. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 20 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

In 1992, while serving as the university's director of athletic facilities, Chesbro scored a memorable "post-career" coaching victory. Interim coaches Smith and Monday were away, training for the Olympic Games, so Chesbro led the Cowboys into a match against arch rival Oklahoma. Their 43-0 victory was largest margin in the 72-year history of wrestling's storied Bedlam Series.

Chesbro was a state high school champion wrestler and a starter on Oklahoma State's 1959 NCAA championship team. In eight years as a high school coach, he had a record of 51-23-8, bringing his victory total to 278. His teams won one state title and twice were runners-up.

For his success in carrying on the rich tradition of a great collegiate wrestling program, Tommy Edward Chesbro is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DICK HUTTON

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1947-50

He was an imposing physical specimen striding across the Oklahoma prairie, and Dick Hutton reigned over the nation's collegiate heavyweights like few men before or since.

He was the cornerstone upon which coach Art Griffith rebuilt the Oklahoma State program when wrestling resumed after World War II. Hutton suffered only one loss and one draw in four years of varsity competition. That one defeat, a controversial referee's decision in the 1949 NCAA finals against light-heavyweight champion Verne Gagne, kept Hutton from becoming the sport's first four-time collegiate king.

He won titles in 1947, '48 and '50, and was a member of two national championship teams. His four appearances in the national finals-three of them successful--established a record that was unmatched for 28 years and unbroken until 44 years later.

Hutton placed sixth in the 1948 Olympic Games after being slowed by an injury in his second bout.

After five years in the U. S. Army, he competed 10 years in professional wrestling, winning the heavyweight belt from Lou Thesz in 1957 and holding it for two years. Contrary to the usual professional image, he became known for his honest, gimmick-free wrestling.

In later years, Hutton owned and operated a thoroughbred and quarterhorse racing and breeding ranch in Texas.

In recognition of his dominance of collegiate wrestling throughout a fabulous career, Richard Heron Avis Hutton is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOHN SMITH

Class of 1997
Wrestler, 1984-88/Head Coach 1991-present

Over a six-year span, which started while he was still a student at Oklahoma State, John Smith was the best wrestler in the world. He now ranks alongside other Distinguished Members whose names emerge in any discussion of "the greatest American wrestler ever."

Although that distinction is arguable, Smith's career record is not. Partly because of opportunity, but primarily because of skill, it is beyond comparison. From 1986 through 1992, Smith won:

:: Two Olympic gold medals. He was the first American to do so in 80 years, and both of his golds came against the world's best.
:: Four World titles. No other American has won more than three.
:: Six consecutive world-class championships. No other American has won more than two in a row.
:: Two gold medals in the Pan American Games, in two attempts.
:: Two gold medals in the Goodwill Games, in two attempts.
:: Five national Freestyle championships, in five attempts.
:: Two NCAA crowns and 90 consecutive collegiate victories.
:: He became the first wrestler to be voted the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding athlete, the first American to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA), and the first wrestler ever nominated for the World Trophy, which he received in 1992.

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 154-7-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 458 times for his school, club, or country and won 436 times, for a success rate above 95 per cent.

Smith retired from competition after the Olympics in Barcelona and two years later coached Oklahoma State to the NCAA team title.

One of the greatest athletes of the Twentieth Century, John William Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE SEAY

Class of 1998
Head Coach, 1985-91

After leading his teams at Cal State-Bakersfield and Oklahoma State to a total of nine NCAA championships, Joe Seay then coached the USA to milestone victories in the Goodwill Games, World Championships and Olympic Games.

A 1964 graduate of Kansas State, Seay wrestled there three years and later won three national Greco-Roman crowns while placing second twice in Freestyle.

But it was as a coach at all levels that he earned lasting renown.

Starting with eight years at Bakersfield South High in California, he compiled a record of 177-12-2 and was national high school Coach of the Year. Moving across town to Cal State, he coached a dozen years and won seven Division II national championships with a record of 189-56-2. At Oklahoma State, from 1985 to '92, he went 114-8-2 with back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90.

His folkstyle record adds up to 480 victories and an .859 winning percentage. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles in both divisions, and he was named national Coach of the Year five times.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

As a coach who has left an indelible mark on all levels of the sport, Joe Van Seay is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENNY MONDAY

Wrestler, 1981-84

No matter what the calendar said, when he stepped onto a mat it was always "MON-day night!" Poise, patience and mental toughness propelled Kenny Monday to Olympic gold in 1988, silver in 1992 and sixth in 1996. He made winning a habit and wrestling a pleasure to watch.

At Booker T. Washington, Kenny's coach characterized his passage from "scrawny to awesome," as Monday chalked up an almost unblemished record of 140-0-1. He amassed four state high school championships at four different weights, tucking in a 1977 Junior Nationals title along the way. In seven trips to the Junior Olympics, he won five times.

At Oklahoma State University, the 150-pounder became a teammate of the only wrestler to tie him in high school duals, a fierce competitor named Mike Sheets. At OSU, Kenny ran up a career record of 121-12-2. Twice a runner-up, Monday captured an NCAA title in 1984. He ranked second on OSU's all-time list for falls. In 1986, he won the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Classic and took both the Sunkist International Open and the World Cup the following year.

International victories came at the 1988 Tblisi Tournament, the 1989 World Championships, the 1991 Pan American Games and the President's Cup in Turkey, the 1992 Roger Coulon in France and the 1996 Dan Kolov Tournament in Bulgaria. At the grueling Tblisi in Soviet Georgia, he was honored with the prized animal-skin cloak as the Outstanding Wrestler. One American coach summed up the Tblisi as "probably five times as tough" as the Olympics. O.W. honors also went to Kenny in 1989 and 1990 at the Grand Masters Tournament.

Four times Kenny posted wins at the U.S. National Championships and also captured the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival crown. His 1988 Olympic Games success brought Monday the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year award, as well as the Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year in 1989.

For his dual achievements as a stellar wrestler at every level and for his encouragement of youth wrestling, Kenny Monday is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENDALL CROSS

Class of 2002
Wrestler, 1987-90

It has been said on several occasions that Kendall Cross was destined to become an Olympic Champion. But to realize that prediction would take one of the most wide-open, exciting styles of competition ever seen in American wrestling -- the Kendall Cross style.

After completing his high school career in Mustang, Oklahoma, by winning a state championship, Kendall went on to Oklahoma State University where he became a three-time All-American and the 1989 NCAA champion. His first success at the international level came in 1988 when he became the Espoir World Cup Champion, setting the stage for his pursuit of the Olympic gold.

In 1992, he was the only freestyle wrestler on the American Olympic Team who was not ranked number one at his weight at the beginning of the year. He finished sixth at the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

The road to the Olympic gold would be no easier in 1996. His championship series with Terry Brands at the Olympic Trials in Spokane, Washington, treated American fans to one of the most spectacular displays of wrestling ever seen in this country. His victory at the trials sent him on to the Atlanta Olympic Games where his dominating effort provided one of the most inspiring gold medal performances in memory.

In 1997, he was named the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, while in 1992 and 1995 he was declared the Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler at the U. S. Nationals where he became a three time national champion.

Cross continues to be a role model for young wrestlers and an impressive representative of our sport. He has developed the Kendall Cross Gold Medal Wrestling Club in the Boston area, designed to aid in the development of young, aspiring wrestlers. For his achievements as an athlete and for his continued representation of the sport of wrestling to the youth of America, Kendall Cross is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

J ROBINSON

Class of 2005
Wrestler, 1966-68

J Robinson's competitive spirit and "give it your all" attitude immerged during his days as a prep wrestler in California. A two-time SDIF Champion (1963 & 1964); he was named Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1964. His flair for international competition and being on the "cutting edge of the sport" began when be became a member of the inaugural California International Team. Competing in Japan, the pioneer team paved the way for young wrestlers of the future.

In the next years, Robinson made his mark in not just one style of wrestling, but three. He honed his collegiate style skills under the instruction of the legendary coach, Myron Roderick at Oklahoma State University. Shifting his focus to the International arena, he was a member of two World teams, finishing fourth in 1970 and fifth in 1971. He competed as a member of the 1972 Greco-Roman Olympic Team. During this time, he won four National titles; two in Freestyle and two in Greco-Roman.

With his three style background, he began his coaching career at the University of Iowa. As an assistant coach, Robinson helped propel the team to an amazing nine national championships in 12 years. In 1984, as interim coach, he led the Hawkeyes to another NCAA title and a Big Ten Championship. In 1986 he was named Head Coach of the University of Minnesota. With one goal in mind, they won back to back NCAA Championships (2001 & 2002). His teams also captured four Big Ten Championships and three NWCA National Duals titles. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2001, and was named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times.

While sharing his skills on the collegiate level, he also continued to share his expertise with athletes in freestyle competitions. He was selected as the head coach for the Pan American Games in 1983 and served as an assistant coach for the Olympics in 1976, 1980, l984, and 1988.

In recognition of his dynamic contributions to the sport of wrestling, J Robinson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

PAT SMITH

Class of 2006
Wrestler, 1990-94

Pat Smith made wrestling history when he became the first wrestler to win four NCAA Division I national championships. Competing for Oklahoma State University, he captured titles in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994, all at 158 pounds, and spurred the Cowboys to team titles in 1990 and 1994.

The year he won his record fourth national crown, he was named the NCAA's Outstanding Wrestler. He also became only the third OSU wrestler to win four Big Eight Conference championships.

Smith ended his college wrestling career with a mark of 121-5-2 and set the school record for consecutive matches without a loss with 98 straight victories.

Smith was named the 1994 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year and was one of just 15 athletes named to the NCAA 75th Anniversary Wrestling Team. He was inducted into the Oklahoma State Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

His successful freestyle wrestling career included a bronze medal in the 1997 World Cup, a second-place finish to three-time Olympian Kenny Monday at the 1996 Trials; gold medal performances at two U.S. Olympic Festivals; and six All-American finishes at the U.S. National Open Freestyle Championships. He also won USA Wrestling national titles on the Espoir and Junior levels.

As an Oklahoma State University assistant wrestling coach for 11 years, he personally coached six Cowboys to individual or multiple NCAA titles and helped OSU to win the Division I team title for four consecutive years from 2003-2006.

Smith won three state titles for Del City High School and was twice named Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. He is a member of one of the nation's top wrestling families -- brothers Lee Roy, John and Mark were also state high school champions and earned All-America honors for OSU.

For inspiring others and accomplishing what no competitor before had ever done, Patrick M. Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FRED FOZZARD

Class of 2012
Wrestler, 1966-68

The United States had been shut out of gold medals at the World Championships and the Olympic Games for eight consecutive years after the 1960 Olympics, but two Oregonians were about to make wrestling history in 1969. Fred Fozzard and fellow Distinguished Member Rick Sanders laid the groundwork for future generations of American wrestlers.

No American wrestler had ever won a World title when Sanders and Fozzard struck gold at the 1969 freestyle World Championships in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. Fozzard's path to the 180.5 pound gold medal, however, seemed unlikely. At age two he contracted polio which shrunk his right arm and left him with no grip and no working thumb. Fozzard developed a unique wrestling style to overcome this disability, which eventually led to numerous championship victories.

Fozzard followed his victory in 1969 with a solid fifth-place finish at the 1970 World Championships. Prior to his arrival on the international scene, Fozzard was an integral part of Oklahoma State's wrestling dynasty. As a sophomore, Fozzard placed second at the 1966 NCAA tournament at 177 lbs., helping the Cowboys to the team title. Fozzard returned as a junior and won the 1967 NCAA tournament as the top seed, which included two pins and a dominant 10-3 win in the finals.

As a senior, the Cowboy standout from Oregon entered the 1968 NCAA tournament undefeated and as the top seed, but he suffered a loss to the eventual champion in the semifinals. Showing his resiliency through adversity, Fozzard stormed back with two pins in the consolation round to place third. His bonus point wins ultimately gave Oklahoma State the team championship in 1968. Fozzard's final collegiate record was 55-4-3.

Fozzard continued his career as an assistant coach for his alma mater from 1968 through 1972. He was the head wrestling coach at Kansas State from 1973 through 1975 and an assistant coach at Portland State from 1975 to 1977. He was also heavily involved in the Southern Oregon program, a highly successful team that competes in the NAIA.

For his historic achievements that led the way for future American wrestlers, Fred Fozzard is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

OKLAHOMA STATE YEAR-BY-YEAR COACHING HISTORY AND RECORDS

A.M. COLVILLE

1915 // 0-1-1 Record

Coached the First Oklahoma State Wrestling Team

A.M. Colville coached the Oklahoma State wrestling program for its first-ever varsity competition, a 17.5-7 dual match loss to Texas in Stillwater in 1915. It was Colville's only OSU coaching appearance. In that match, OSU 125-pounder Dan F. Cooley scored the first-ever win for a Cowboy wrestler when he pinned his opponent in 55 seconds and rendered his foe unconscious. Colville's inaugural OSU squad consisted of Cooley, Herman Dose, Millard Harnden, R.W. Havenstrite and Jack Briscoe.

ED GALLAGHER

1916-40 // 136-5-4 Record // 11 NCAA Team Championships
37 NCAA Individual Champions // 69 All-Americans

"The Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling", as he was eulogized by the New York Times upon his untimely death in 1940, Ed Gallagher meant more to the sport than anyone ever has and likely ever will.

Coach of 11 NCAA championship teams and 37 NCAA individual champions during his time at the helm of the Oklahoma State program, he launched the premier dynasty in all of North American sports when he took over the program in 1916. Gallagher, who never wrestled himself, was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams and went 136-5-4. At one point, he coached his teams to 69 consecutive victories.

ART GRIFFITH

1941-56 // 78-7-4 Record // 8 NCAA Team Championships
27 NCAA Individual Champions // 64 All-Americans

Facing the unenviable task of succeeding Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma State, Art Griffith took over the program in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

MYRON RODERICK

1957-69 // 140-10-7 Record // 7 NCAA Championships
20 NCAA Individual Champions // 79 All-Americans

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

TOMMY CHESBRO

1970-84 // 227-26-0 Record // 1 NCAA Team Championship
19 NCAA Individual Champions // 76 All-Americans

Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed at Oklahoma State by not one, but three Hall of Fame coaches.
But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

JOE SEAY

1985-91 // 114-18-2 record // 2 NCAA Championships
7 NCAA Individual Champions // 45 All-Americans

A decorated high school and Division II college coach in California prior to taking over as coach at Oklahoma State from 1985 to '92, Joe Seay went 114-8-2 during his time in Stillwater and led the Cowboys to back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles at both the Division I and Division II levels.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

JOHN SMITH

1992-Pres. // 348-48-6 Record // 5 NCAA Team Championships
26 NCAA Individual Champions // 102 All-Americans

Perhaps the greatest American wrestler ever, John Smith has rightfully earned a legitimate spot in the discussion for best collegiate coach as well.

Since taking over at his alma mater in 1992, Smith has already earned the distinction of being the winningest coach in Oklahoma State wrestling history with 328 dual match wins. Add in his five NCAA team championships in 1994, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and the fact that he has coached 26 of his wrestlers to NCAA individual championships and it becomes clear that Smith is one of the best.

The Cowboys have dominated on the conference level under Smith, winning 15 team titles and 82 individual championships.

455-36-6 ALL-TIME RECORD AT HOME

BY THE NUMBERS

25 NCAA team championships won by Oklahoma State since Gallagher-Iba Arena opened in 1939.

92 Percent of duals won by OSU at Gallagher-Iba Arena (455-36-6 record) since the building opened in 1939.

67 Longest home unbeaten streak in Oklahoma State history. The streak lasted from 1933-51.

41 Unbeaten and untied seasons for the Cowboys at Gallagher-Iba Arena since the building opened in 1939.

No venue in America has a richer wrestling tradition than Gallagher-Iba Arena, home of Oklahoma State wrestling since 1939. In its beginning as Gallagher Hall, the gymnasium was named for Edward Clark Gallagher, the Oklahoma A&M wrestling mentor who never wrestled competitively but became the greatest coach of his time.

The 1987-88 season brought a new look and a new name to the hallowed hall. When renovations were completed in January 1988, it was renamed Gallagher-Iba Arena to honor the late Mr. Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State's legendary basketball coach.

Gallagher-Iba Arena took on a new look once again in 2001. On Jan. 4, 2001 the OSU wrestling team hosted Oregon in the first match in the newly renovated arena. Gallagher-Iba Arena underwent a $56 million renovation, that increased the seating capacity of Gallagher-Iba Arena to its current total of 13,611 seats.

The Cowboys set a new wrestling attendance record in the first season, packing in 10,802 for a Bedlam Series dual against Oklahoma on Feb. 18. Previously, the largest crowd was estimated at 8,300.

Since wrestling began in Gallagher-Iba Arena, the Cowboys have won 25 NCAA titles and have had 40 unbeaten and untied campaigns at home. One of their longest winning streaks ran with the arena's opening in 1939 and lasted until Feb. 16, 1951. During that period, Oklahoma State won 37 straight home duals, including no ties.

From the final dual of 1959 through the first five home duals of the 1967 season, Oklahoma State wrestled 67 duals without a loss, finishing with an impressive 60-0-1 record before the streak was broken by Oklahoma, 19-13.

On Feb. 3, 1939, Oklahoma A&M wrestled for the first time inside the arena, defeating Indiana by an 18-6 margin. On Feb. 3, 1989, the Oklahoma State Cowboys hosted the Hoosiers in a celebration of the 50-year anniversary of the first Gallagher Hall dual. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers, 28-6, in the 1989 dual.

OSU's latest home winning streak of 50 consecutive duals was the second-longest such streak without a loss or tie, as it began near the end of the 1986 season and lasted until Jan. 30, 1993.
